Who Ammyy Admin is for

- ✓ Fits if you help family or friends on Windows and want a program that runs without installing
- ✓ Works for occasional personal support where the free licence's session limits don't matter

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you use a Mac, Linux or a phone, as only Windows is listed
- ✗ Not for you if you need commercial use for free, since the free licence is non-commercial
- ✗ Watch out: the newest build is from January 2019 and the news list ends that year, so it may not be kept up
- ✗ Watch out: the vendor's pages give 15 hours on one and 30 on another for ID connections
- ✗ Tight if you need more than a couple of sessions, as each paid licence runs two years and each machine needs one

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Occasional home or family remote help at no cost

- ⓘ The buy page lists only Windows, and its feature page names Windows versions up to 8.
- ⓘ The vendor's license pages state different monthly limits for ID connections (15 hours on one, 30 on another), so check before relying on a free or Starter license.
- ⓘ Paid licenses last 2 years, and each computer in a commercial session needs one.
