Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.2

GPA, above 74 of the 122 other web hosts we grade

Appwrite Sites is the web hosting product inside the Appwrite platform. It deploys static, single-page and server-rendered frontends from Git, the CLI or a manual upload, with branch preview URLs, rollbacks, a CDN and TLS. Sites are not priced on their own: they are part of an Appwrite organization plan alongside auth, databases, storage and functions.

> You set up builds and deploys, with a learning curve and no store rating.
> From our grade for ease of use

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Appwrite Sites, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for deploying web apps next to an Appwrite backend

Free projects pause after a week of inactivity, and usage counts against the whole Appwrite organization.

2 Paid plans start at $25 a month

As its pricing page puts it: $25 per month on the Pro plan, with a free plan available.

3 There is a free plan

Unlimited sites, 5 GB bandwidth, 2 GB storage and 15-minute builds, with projects paused after 1 week of inactivity and a limit of 2 projects.

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Deploy from Git

GitHub and Origin are supported, with commits to the production branch deployed and other branches given preview links.

6 Several deploy paths

Sites can also be deployed with the Appwrite CLI in CI or by uploading a .tar.gz archive from the Console.

7 Static and server-side rendering

Static, single-page and server-rendered apps are supported, with 14 framework presets including Next.js, Nuxt, SvelteKit and Astro.

8 A 2.2 GPA, above 74 of 122

That is against the other web hosts we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

Nothing Appwrite Sites does is plain enough to make in a weekend. The 3 things listed below take a company.

Who Appwrite Sites is for

- ✓ Fits if you already use Appwrite for your backend
- ✓ Works for small front-end projects deployed from GitHub

Who it is not for

- ✕ Tight if you stay free: 2 projects, 5 GB of bandwidth and pausing after a week idle
- ✕ Watch out: usage counts against the organization's shared limits
- ✕ Skip it if you use GitLab or Bitbucket, listed as coming soon
- ✕ Pricey if traffic grows, with extra bandwidth at $15 per 100 GB

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Teams already using Appwrite for auth, databases or functions
- ✓ Frontend developers deploying Next.js, Nuxt or SvelteKit apps
- ✓ Projects that want hosting and a backend under one subscription

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Sites are priced as part of an Appwrite organization, so usage counts against shared bandwidth, storage, execution and build limits.
- ⓘ Free projects are paused after one week of inactivity and limited to 2 projects; Pro removes pausing.
- ⓘ Pro shows a "From $25" price with pay-as-you-go overage, including $15 per 100 GB of extra bandwidth.
- ⓘ The Git provider list shows GitHub and Origin, with GitLab, Bitbucket, Gitea and others listed as coming soon.

From our grade for features

Deploy from Git

GitHub and Origin are supported, with commits to the production branch deployed and other branches given preview links.

Several deploy paths

Sites can also be deployed with the Appwrite CLI in CI or by uploading a .tar.gz archive from the Console.

Static and server-side rendering

Static, single-page and server-rendered apps are supported, with 14 framework presets including Next.js, Nuxt, SvelteKit and Astro.

Rollbacks and domains

Instant rollbacks promote an earlier deployment without a rebuild, and custom domains, DNS and automatic TLS are managed in the Console.

CDN and edge delivery

Sites run on the Appwrite Network with a global CDN, DDoS protection and edge server-side rendering.

Traffic and logs

Requests, bandwidth, builds and compute are tracked, with request logs and SSR output in the Console.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

74/122

Other web hosts it is graded above

Appwrite Sites's GPA of 2.2 is higher than 74 of the 122 other web hosts we grade, and level with 24.

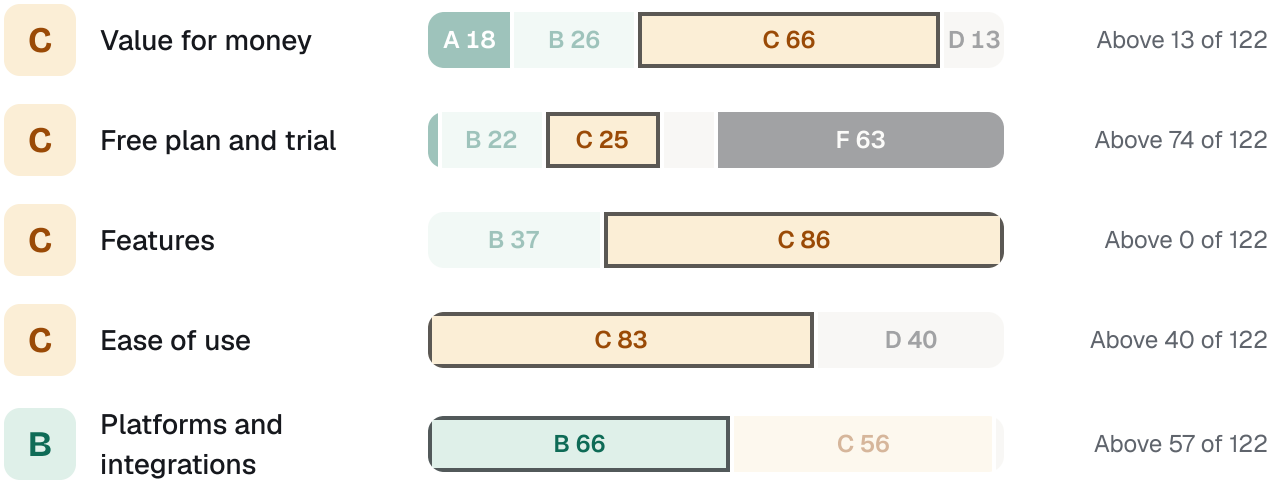

It stands best on platforms and integrations (B, above 57 of 122) and worst on features (C, above 0).

Its paid plans start at $25 a month, against a middle price of $9.69 for the category: 86 of the 107 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 7 tools score higher and cost less.

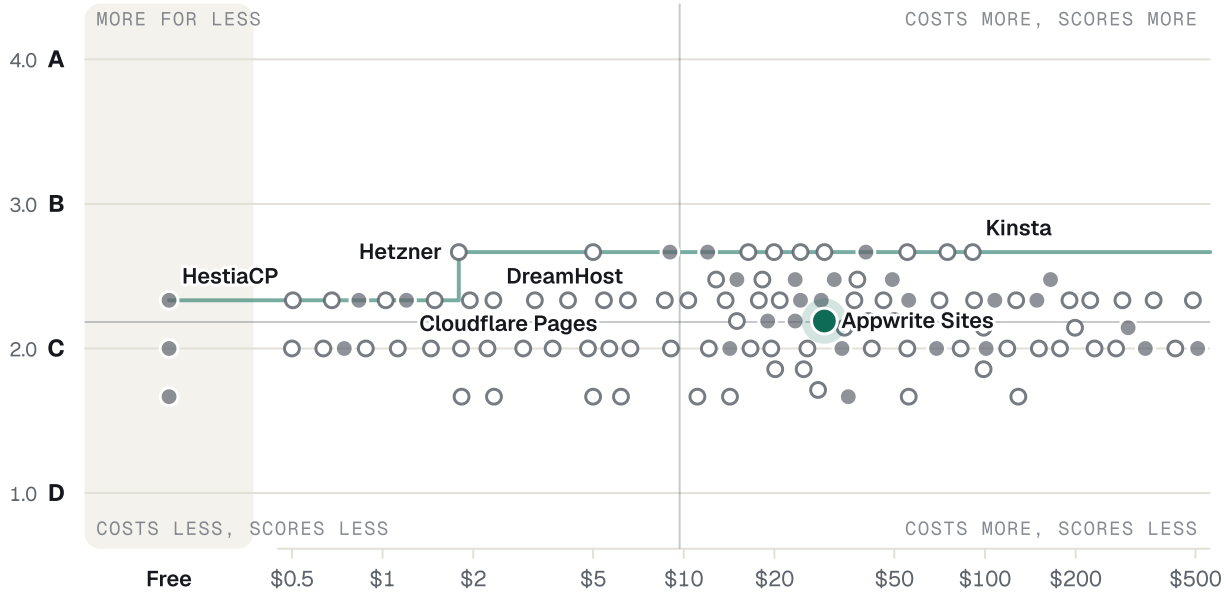

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 123 web hosts we grade, cut by the letter each got. Appwrite Sites's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 111 web hosts. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Appwrite Sites is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

Nothing Appwrite Sites does is plain enough to make in a weekend. The 3 things listed below take a company.

It costs $300 a year.

What you could not

- ✕ Databases with views, filters and links between them.
- ✕ A tracking script and a database that counts every visit.
- ✕ It plugs into other products, GitHub, Next.js and Nuxt among them.

What this rests on. Appwrite Sites's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
