Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.2

GPA, above 38 of the 149 other project management tools we grade

Assembla provides managed cloud hosting for Git, Subversion and Perforce, with code review, wikis and, on the Growth plan, project management such as ticketing, sprints and time tracking. Plans are priced per user, and a 14-day trial needs no credit card. Perforce Cloud is a separate plan family.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Assembla, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for Git or SVN hosting with ticketing on the side

Assembla hosts Git and SVN code with code review and tickets.

2 Paid plans start at $12.50 a month for each person

As its pricing page puts it: $12.50 per user / month, billed annually.

3 You can try it first

14-day free trial, no credit card required

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Git and SVN hosting

Unlimited repositories for Git and Apache Subversion, with Git LFS.

6 Code review

Merge requests, inline comments and multi-reviewer approvals.

7 Ticketing and sprints

Growth includes ticketing, backlog, milestones, a standup board and burndown charts.

8 A 2.2 GPA, above 38 of 149

That is against the other project management tools we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

The plain part of Assembla you could make: issue tracking, time tracking and wiki. What surrounds it you could not. The 2 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

Best for Git or SVN hosting with ticketing on the side

Assembla hosts Git and SVN code with code review and tickets. But Starter at $12.50 is code hosting only, project management starts at Growth at $19, and there is no free plan.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD

Assembla

Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	C	Starter is $12.50 a user a month on yearly billing, but project management needs Growth at $19, past the $15.95 where the dearer quarter starts.
Free plan and trial	C	A 14-day trial with no card is the only free part. There is no free plan.
Features	C	Git and SVN hosting, code review, tickets, sprints, time tracking and wikis. Project management is not in Starter.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. Repositories, permissions and integrations have to be set up.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web only, with Slack, Jira, GitHub, Travis CI, Zapier and TestRail links.

Grade point average Fair, out of 4.0 2.2

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Assembla is for

- ✓ Fits if you still keep code in SVN and want tickets beside it
- ✓ Works for teams that want code hosting in several regions

Who it is not for

- ✕ Skip it if you want a free plan, as only a 14-day trial exists
- ✕ Not for you if you want project management on Starter, as it begins at Growth
- ✕ Pricey if you need Perforce Cloud, which starts at $52.20 a user a month yearly
- ✕ Watch out: extra storage and 24x5 support are add-ons below Custom Cloud

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Teams that still run SVN and want pull-request style review
- ✓ Small software teams that want code hosting and tickets from one vendor
- ✓ Companies that need SOC 2 and audit logs, which the vendor lists on every plan

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Project management is included only from Growth; Starter is code hosting.
- ⓘ Storage beyond the included amount is an add-on, and premium 24x5 support is an add-on until Custom Cloud.
- ⓘ Perforce Cloud is priced separately, from $52.20 per user / month billed annually ($58 month to month).
- ⓘ The pricing page shows an annual-billing toggle with a 10% badge; the per-user prices here match its annual totals but the monthly-billing figures are not in the page text.

Assembla is made by Assembla.

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

38/149

Other project management tools it is graded above

Assembla's GPA of 2.2 is higher than 38 of the 149 other project management tools we grade, and level with 31.

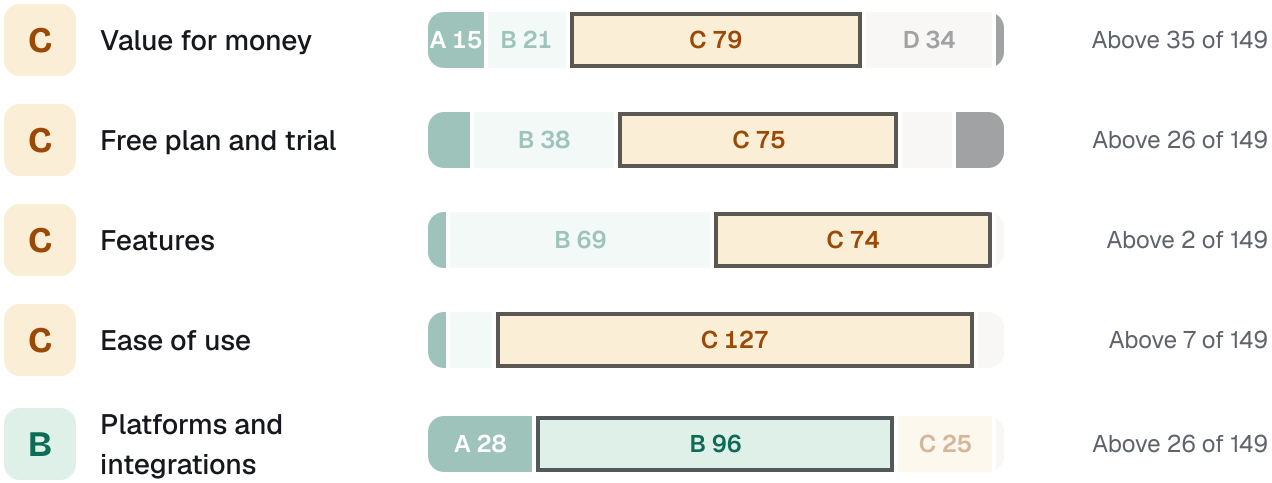

It stands best on platforms and integrations (B, above 26 of 149) and worst on features (C, above 2).

Its paid plans start at $12.50 a month for each person, against a middle price of $9 for the category: 85 of the 121 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 51 tools score higher and cost less.

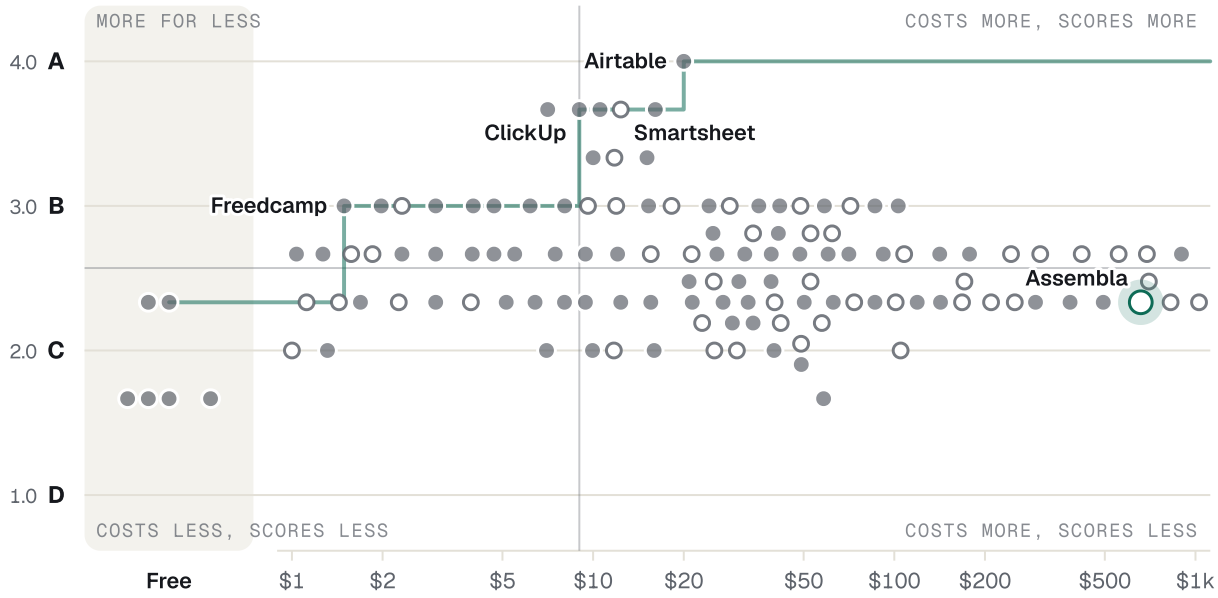

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 150 project management tools we grade, cut by the letter each got. Assembla's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 128 project management tools. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Assembla is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

The plain part of Assembla you could make: issue tracking, time tracking and wiki. What surrounds it you could not. The 2 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 80 of the 149 other project management tools grade higher. It costs $150 a year.

What you could make

- Issue tracking, time tracking and wiki: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- It is priced for each person, which means accounts and billing for a team.
- It plugs into other products, Slack, Jira and GitHub among them, and has an API.

What this rests on. Assembla's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
