Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

1.8

GPA, above 30 of the 178 other AI agents we grade

Beam AI is a platform for building and running AI agents that automate business processes such as invoice matching in SAP, CV screening and customer service. It offers pre-trained agents, agentic workflows that follow a company's standard operating procedures, and an agent hub for tracking tasks. Pricing is by tasks per month, from a free tier to a fixed monthly Scale plan.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Beam AI, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for agents for enterprise task automation

Beam runs pre-trained agents and workflows built from your SOPs, with a task hub and confidence scores.

2 Paid plans start at $50 a month

As its pricing page puts it: $50 per month.

3 There is a free plan

20 tasks a month, 1 base integration and self-healing outputs.

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Pre-trained agents

Ready-made agents come with domain expertise, and you connect your own databases and integrations to put them to work.

6 Agentic workflows from SOPs

Agents are set up to follow an organization's standard operating procedures, with consent steps where a person must approve.

7 Task hub with confidence scores

The product demo shows a task list with status per task and a confidence figure on each step, such as vendor validation and three-way matching.

8 A 1.8 GPA, above 30 of 178

That is against the other AI agents we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

To replace Beam AI you would be making an AI agent, with the models and the safeguards behind it. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

The report card

Best for agents for enterprise task automation

Beam runs pre-trained agents and workflows built from your SOPs, with a task hub and confidence scores. Free is 20 tasks a month, Pro is $50 for 200, and Scale jumps to $3,990. Free lists one base integration, and the vendor frames it for enterprise automation.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD	Beam AI	Graded Nov 12, 2026
SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	D	Pro is $50 a month for 200 tasks and Scale is $3,990, so the step above Pro is far beyond the $52 where the dearest tenth begins.
Free plan and trial	C	A free plan of 20 tasks a month with 1 base integration, which you will outgrow quickly.
Features	C	Agents, SOP-based workflows, confidence scores and triggers, but connectors beyond the base ones mean the Custom plan.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. Workflows are built from your SOPs and integrations are by category.
Platforms and integrations	C	Web only, with one integration named and more by category.
Grade point average		Weak, out of 4.0 1.8

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Beam AI is for

- ✓ Fits if you want to try agent workflows from your own SOPs on a small task count
- ✓ Works for an enterprise team that wants a task hub with confidence scores

Who it is not for

- ✗ Tight if you stay free: 20 tasks a month and 1 base integration
- ✗ Pricey if you pass Pro: Scale is $3,990 a month, with nothing published between
- ✗ Watch out: Pro is capped at 200 tasks a month
- ✗ Not for you if you need more connectors, as Free allows 1 and Scale 3 base integrations
- ✗ Watch out: the page does not say whether monthly prices are billed monthly or annually

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Enterprises automating back-office work such as accounts payable and HR screening
- ✓ Teams in finance, banking, insurance or customer service looking for ready-made agents
- ✓ Small teams who want to test one agent on the free tier

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Free and Pro are capped at 20 and 200 tasks a month; Pro is the only published price below $3,990.
- ⓘ Only 1 base integration is listed on Free and 3 on Scale; further connectors mean the Custom plan.
- ⓘ The pricing page does not say whether monthly prices are billed monthly or annually.
- ⓘ Custom pricing is not published, and the vendor frames the product for enterprise automation.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

30/178

Other AI agents it is graded above

Beam AI's GPA of 1.8 is higher than 30 of the 178 other AI agents we grade, and level with 33.

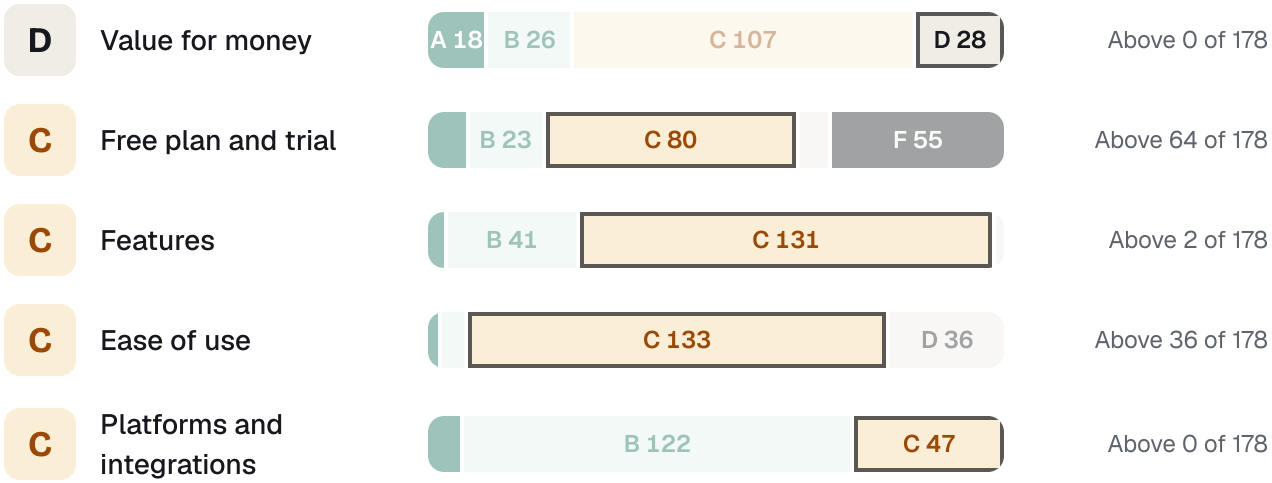

It stands best on free plan and trial (C, above 64 of 178) and worst on value for money (D, above 0).

Its paid plans start at $50 a month, against a middle price of $25 for the category: 73 of the 98 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.0 out of 4. 65 tools score higher and cost less.

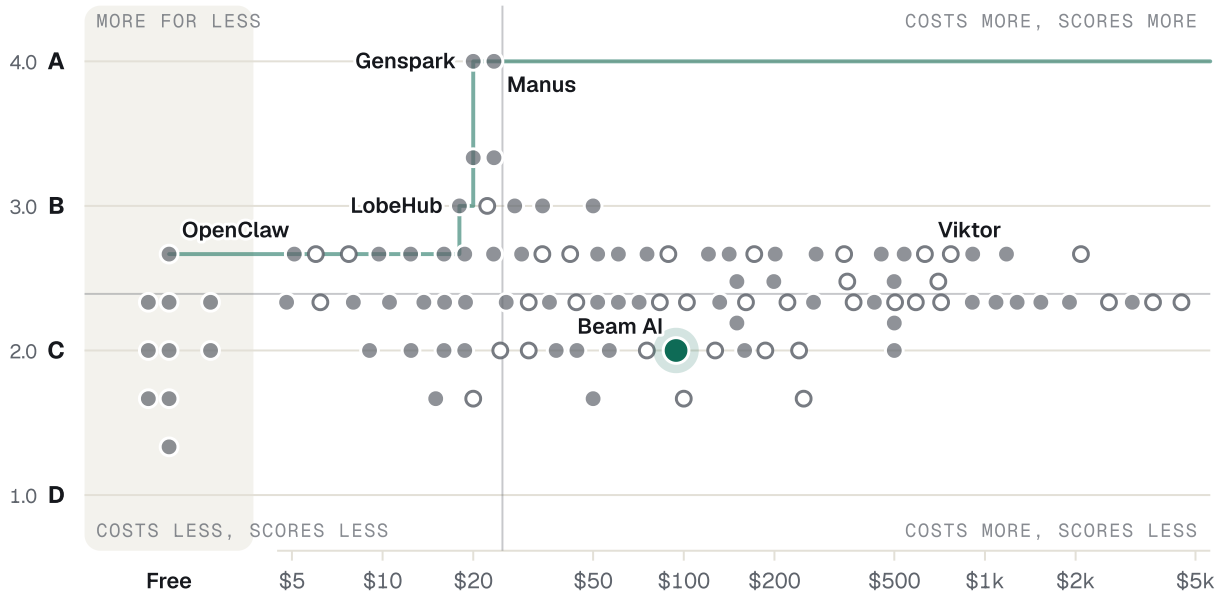

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 179 AI agents we grade, cut by the letter each got. Beam AI's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 109 AI agents. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Beam AI is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double) ⍰

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Beam AI you would be making an AI agent, with the models and the safeguards behind it. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 115 of the 178 other AI agents grade higher. It costs $600 a year.

What you could not

- ✕ An AI agent, with the models and the safeguards behind it.
- ✕ Connections to other products, each kept working as those products change.

× A builder that other people can use without writing code.

What this rests on. Beam AI's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
