Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.8

GPA, above 116 of the 186 other desktop utilities we grade

Bulk Crap Uninstaller (BCU) is a free, open-source Windows program manager built for removing many applications with little user input. It detects registered, hidden and portable apps, runs each one's own uninstaller where it can, and then looks for leftovers. It is licensed under Apache 2.0 and can be used commercially at no cost.

> Many options and filters to learn before a bulk run, with a manual to read.
> From our grade for ease of use

To get you started, here are 8 things to know about Bulk Crap Uninstaller, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for removing many Windows programs at once

Bulk Crap Uninstaller is free, open source under Apache 2.0, and removes many programs at once with little input.

2 It is free

Bulk Crap Uninstaller has no paid plan at all. The whole program is free under the Apache 2.0 license, for private and commercial use, with no obligations.

3 It runs on Windows

Windows.

4 Batch uninstalling

Uninstalls any number of applications in one run, with minimal to no input, and runs several at once with collision prevention.

5 Wide application detection

Finds registered and hidden apps, apps with broken uninstallers, portable apps, Steam and Oculus games, Chocolatey packages, Store apps and Windows updates.

6 Leftover cleanup and force uninstall

Searches for leftovers after an uninstall, and can remove an application manually, bypassing its own uninstaller.

7 A 2.8 GPA, above 116 of 186

That is against the other desktop utilities we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

8 Keep it

The report card

Best for removing many Windows programs at once

Bulk Crap Uninstaller is free, open source under Apache 2.0, and removes many programs at once with little input. But it is Windows only, it wants .NET and about 300 MB of RAM, and there's no paid support.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD

Bulk Crap Uninstaller

Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	A	Free under Apache 2.0, including commercial use.
Free plan and trial	A	The whole program is free with no obligations, for private and commercial use.
Features	B	Batch uninstalling, hidden and portable app detection, leftover cleanup, force uninstall and console automation. Nothing in the listing is missing from the job.
Ease of use	C	Many options and filters to learn before a bulk run, with a manual to read. No store rating is on record.
Platforms and integrations	D	Windows only, Vista or newer with .NET 4.0 or newer. No Mac or Linux version.

Grade point average Good, out of 4.0 2.8

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Bulk Crap Uninstaller is for

- ✓ Fits if you clean up a PC with dozens of programs and want one pass
- ✓ Works for IT people who want a free tool they can script from the console

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you use a Mac or Linux, as only Windows is listed
- ✗ Not for you if you want paid support, since help comes only from the manual and a feedback form
- ✗ Too light on hand-holding for first-timers, as the bulk options need care
- ✗ Watch out: it needs .NET 4.0 or newer and about 300 MB of free RAM

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ People clearing many unwanted programs from a PC at once
- ✓ System administrators who script removals from the command line
- ✓ Users who want free, open-source software with no license limits

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Windows only; the vendor recommends Windows Vista or newer and .NET 4.0 or newer.
- ⓘ It needs around 300 MB of free RAM and 50 MB of disk space, per the vendor's requirements.
- ⓘ The vendor's page lists no paid support option; help comes through its manual and feedback form.

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

116/186

Other desktop utilities it is graded above

Bulk Crap Uninstaller's GPA of 2.8 is higher than 116 of the 186 other desktop utilities we grade, and level with 37.

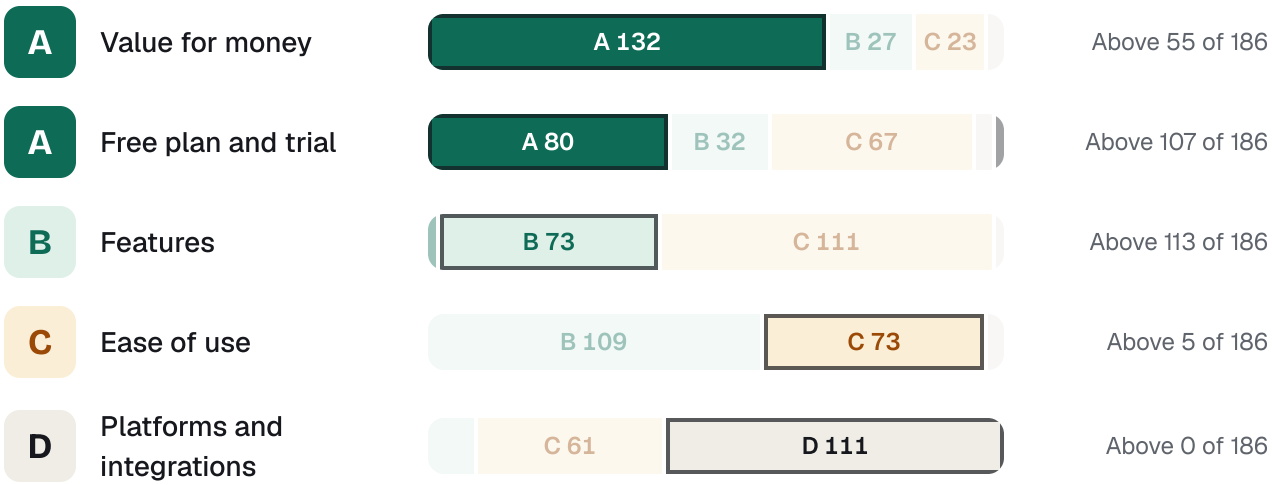

It stands best on free plan and trial (A, above 107 of 186) and worst on platforms and integrations (D, above 0).

Bulk Crap Uninstaller has no paid plan.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.0 out of 4. Nothing scores higher for less, though at least one tool matches that score at a lower price.

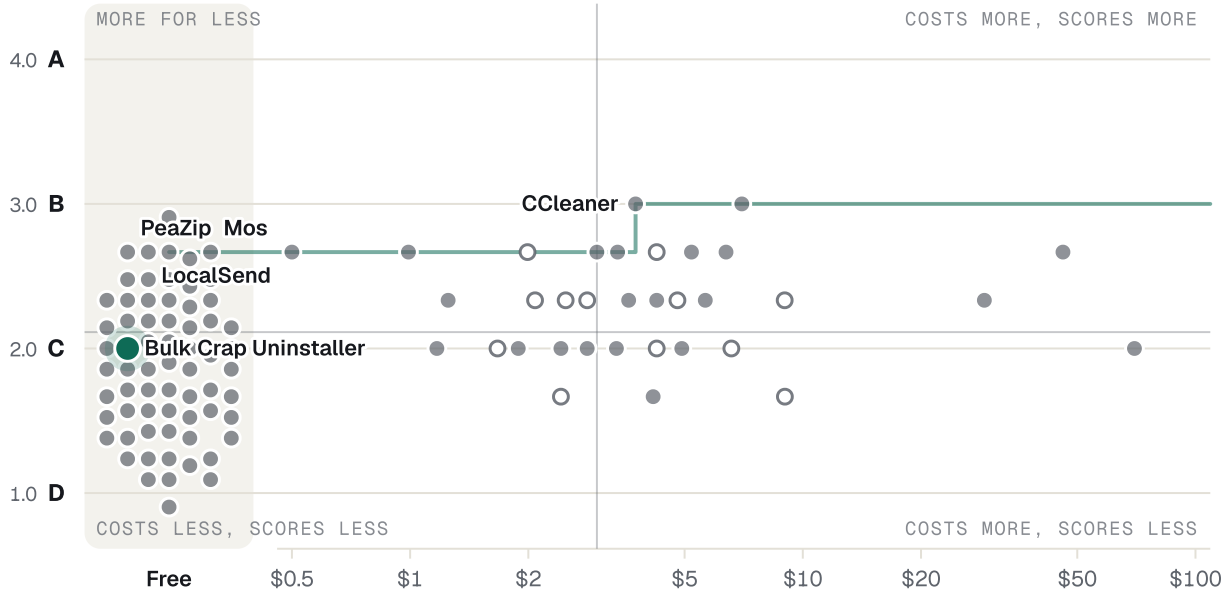

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 187 desktop utilities we grade, cut by the letter each got. Bulk Crap Uninstaller's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 103 desktop utilities. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Bulk Crap Uninstaller is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

Bulk Crap Uninstaller is free, so making your own would save you nothing.

What you could not

- ✕ Deleting system files without breaking anything.
- ✕ A real app for Windows. Something home-made would be a web page.
- ✕ The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. Bulk Crap Uninstaller's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
