Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

15/87

Other AI assistants it is graded above

Chatbot App's GPA of 2.2 is higher than 15 of the 87 other AI assistants we grade, and level with 15.

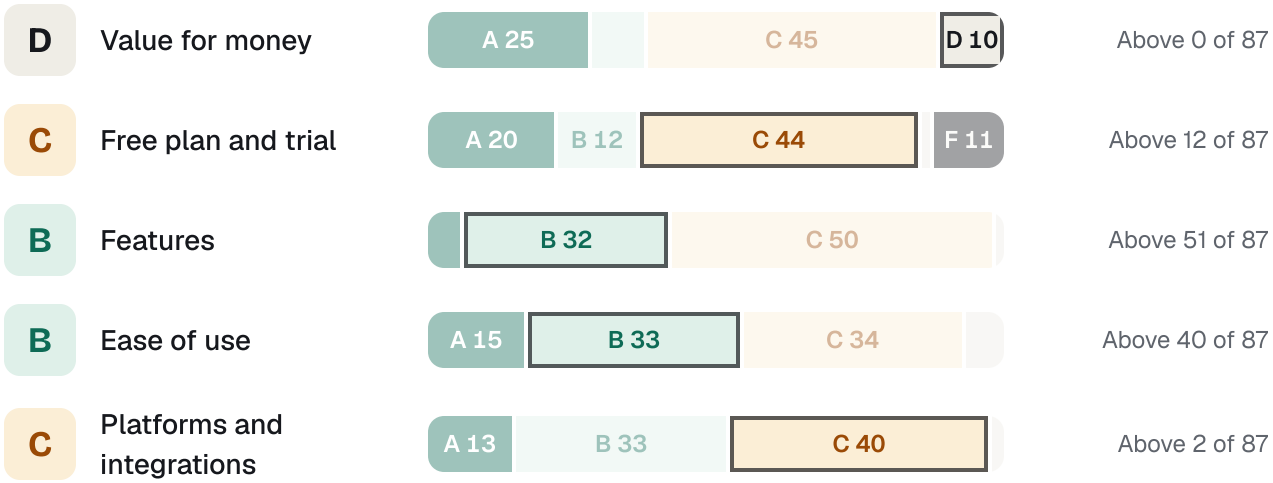

It stands best on features (B, above 51 of 87) and worst on value for money (D, above 0).

Its paid plans start at $29.99 a month, against a middle price of $12.46 for the category: 50 of the 53 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.7 out of 4. 21 tools score higher and cost less.

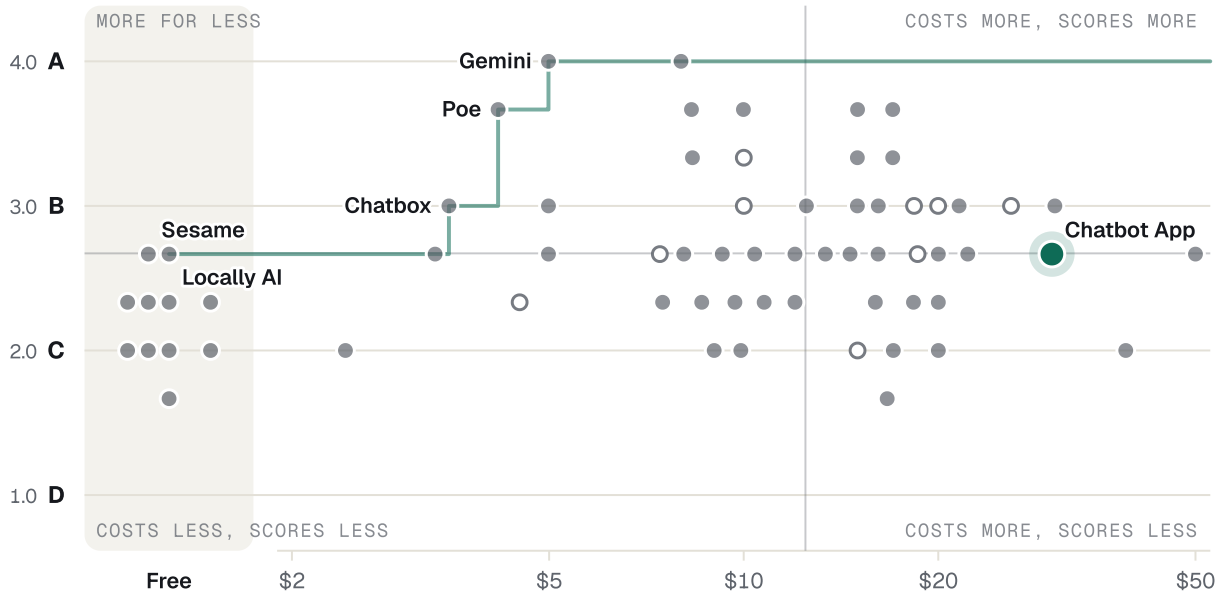

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 88 AI assistants we grade, cut by the letter each got. Chatbot App's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 65 AI assistants. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Chatbot App is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Chatbot App you would be making an AI model, which you can rent by the request but not make. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 57 of the 87 other AI assistants grade higher. It costs $359.88 a year.

What you could not

- ✕ An AI model, which you can rent by the request but not make.
- ✕ A search engine with an AI model behind it.

- ✕ A library of papers and sources to search.
- ✕ An image model, which you can rent by the picture but not make.
- ✕ The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. Chatbot App's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
