Who DiskGenius is for

- ✓ Fits if you need partitions and cloning in one Windows tool
- ✓ Works for people who only need to scan and preview lost files

Who it is not for

- ✗ Tight if you're staying free, as the free edition recovers only small files
- ✗ Pricey if you want Professional, with a one-month licence at $69.90
- ✗ Watch out: dynamic-to-basic conversion and full backup access are Professional only
- ✗ Watch out: licences cover one PC unless you pick a family or technician tier, and the refund policy is conditional

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Windows users who want recovery, partitioning and cloning in one app
- ✓ A one-off rescue job using the one-month license
- ✓ People who prefer paying once rather than subscribing

Worth knowing

- ⓘ The Free edition recovers only small files; recovering any size and saving partition tables needs Professional.
- ⓘ Dynamic-to-basic disk conversion and full backup access are Professional-only.
- ⓘ The site describes a Windows utility and the download page names Windows versions; no macOS version is listed.
- ⓘ A 30-day conditional refund policy applies, and all licenses are for one PC unless a family or technician tier is chosen.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

Nothing DiskGenius does is plain enough to make in a weekend. The 5 things listed below take a company.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 174 of the 186 other desktop utilities grade higher. It costs $838.80 a year.

What you could not

- ✕ Deleting system files without breaking anything.
- ✕ A file manager working directly on your disk.
- ✕ A real app for Windows. Something home-made would be a web page.

- ✕ It is priced for each person, which means accounts and billing for a team.
- ✕ The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. DiskGenius's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
