Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

1.6

GPA, above 2 of the 25 other law practice software we grade

EvenUp is an AI platform for personal injury firms that covers intake, treatment tracking, demand drafting, negotiation and litigation documents. Firms can run the software themselves or buy a managed pre-litigation service called PLAAS. The vendor says its Piai model is trained on personal injury cases and medical records.

To get you started, here are 7 things to know about EvenUp, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> No store rating is on record, and its tools need connecting to your case files and checking.
> From our grade for ease of use

1 Best for personal injury firms drafting demand letters

It is not a practice management system, and prices are case-based and quoted on a call.

2 It runs on Web

Web.

3 AI Drafts and Express Demands

Produces demand letters and other legal documents from the facts of the case, with a Microsoft Word add-in for reviewing and editing drafts.

4 MedChrons and medical management

Parses and categorizes medical records into chronologies, and surfaces treatment gaps and missing documents.

5 Companion assistant

A legal AI assistant that answers case questions and runs skills such as deposition outlines and witness preparation. The vendor says Lexis+ with Protege content is built in.

6 A 1.6 GPA, above 2 of 25

That is against the other law practice software we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

7 Keep it

To replace EvenUp you would be making an AI agent, with the models and the safeguards behind it. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

- ✓ Works for firms already on Litify, SmartAdvocate or CASEpeer

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you want case management or billing, since it is not a practice system
- ✗ Not for you if you need a price to plan with, as pricing is by case and quoted on a call

- ✗ Watch out: some demand products are legal-reviewed rather than instant, depending on case type
- ✗ Watch out: no trial is offered

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ High-volume personal injury firms drafting many demands
- ✓ Firms that want to outsource pre-litigation work as a service

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

2/25

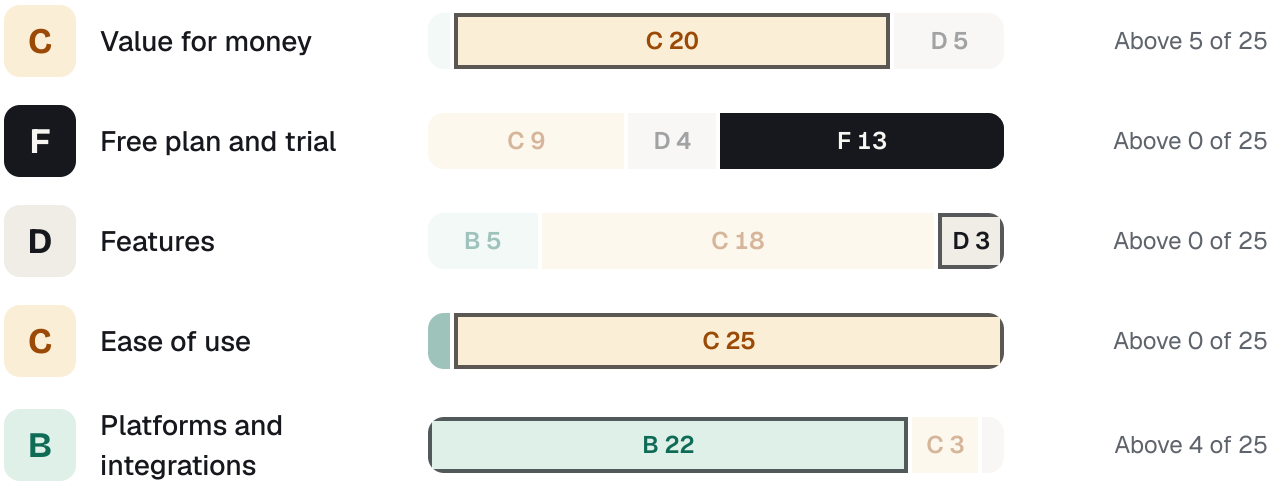

Other law practice software it is graded above

EvenUp's GPA of 1.6 is higher than 2 of the 25 other law practice software we grade, and level with 1.

It stands best on platforms and integrations (B, above 4 of 25) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 26 law practice software we grade, cut by the letter each got. EvenUp's own letter is outlined.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace EvenUp you would be making an AI agent, with the models and the safeguards behind it. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 22 of the 25 other law practice software grade higher.

What you could make

- Documents: an app builder makes this well.

What you could not

- An AI agent, with the models and the safeguards behind it.
- An AI model, which you can rent by the request but not make.
- Connections to other products, each kept working as those products change.
- Connections that pull numbers from dozens of other services.

What this rests on. EvenUp's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
