Who Everee is for

- ✓ Fits if you pay many hourly or gig workers and want flexible pay cycles
- ✓ Works for platforms that want payroll built into their own app

Who it is not for

- ✗ Watch out: no prices are published, and rates depend on payment or worker counts
- ✗ Watch out: the pay card carries a small monthly fee per active card, with no amount given
- ✗ Skip it if you pay staff outside the US, as the site describes tax filing in the 50 states only
- ✗ Skip it if you want a free plan or a trial, as neither is listed

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Staffing agencies and gig or delivery businesses that pay workers on irregular schedules
- ✓ Software platforms that want to embed payroll in their own product

Worth knowing

- ⓘ The pricing page says the pay card carries a small monthly fee per active card, without giving the amount.
- ⓘ The site describes tax filings in all 50 states; it does not describe payroll outside the US.
- ⓘ Volume discounts are offered, so rates depend on payment or worker counts.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

26/61

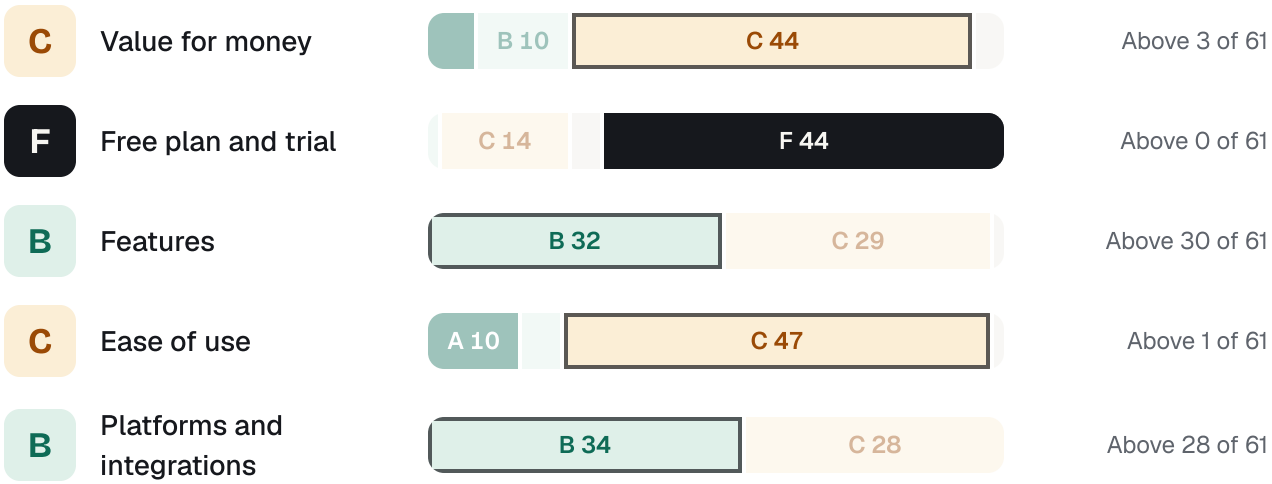

Other payroll services it is graded above

Everee's GPA of 2.0 is higher than 26 of the 61 other payroll services we grade, and level with 8.

It stands best on features (B, above 30 of 61) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 62 payroll services we grade, cut by the letter each got. Everee's own letter is outlined.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Everee you would be making payroll taxes worked out and filed with the government for you. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

What you could not

- ✕ Payroll taxes worked out and filed with the government for you.
- ✕ Payouts to partners in many countries, with their tax forms.
- ✕ An API that other software can build on.
- ✕ The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. Everee's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
