Who GMX Mail is for

- ✓ Fits if you want a free second mailbox with lots of storage
- ✓ Works for people who want aliases and PGP encryption without paying

Who it is not for

- ✕ Watch out: signup asks for your gender, date of birth and a recovery phone or email, and ends with a captcha
- ✕ Skip it if you want a custom domain, as the pages read don't mention one
- ✕ Not for you if you want a desktop email app, as only Android, iOS and iPadOS apps are listed
- ✕ Watch out: the pages read list no paid plan or support tier

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ People who want a free mailbox with large storage and no subscription
- ✓ Anyone who wants to read several other email accounts in one place
- ✓ Users who prefer an email provider that keeps data in Europe

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Signup asks for gender, date of birth and a recovery phone or email, and ends with a captcha.
- ⓘ The pages read list no paid plan, so features such as a custom domain are not mentioned.
- ⓘ Apps are listed for Android, iOS and iPadOS only; no desktop email app is mentioned.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

65/70

Other email apps it is graded above

GMX Mail's GPA of 3.2 is higher than 65 of the 70 other email apps we grade, and level with 4.

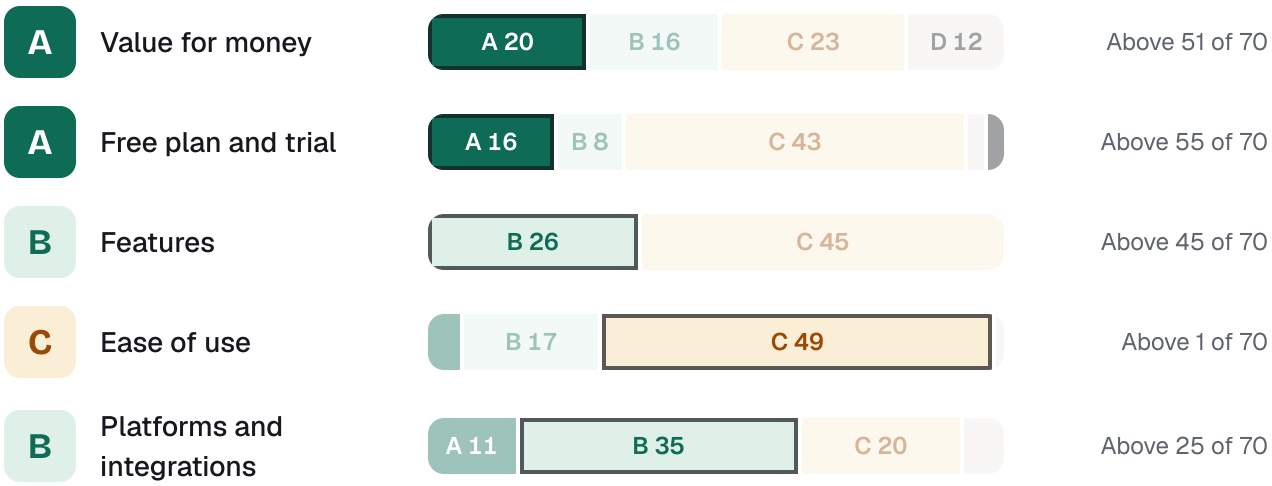

It stands best on free plan and trial (A, above 55 of 70) and worst on ease of use (C, above 1).

GMX Mail has no paid plan.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.7 out of 4, and no tool on the category's chart scores higher without costing more.

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 71 email apps we grade, cut by the letter each got. GMX Mail's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 67 email apps. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. GMX Mail is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

GMX Mail is free, so making your own would save you nothing.

And it is not the kind of software a weekend replaces. It is one of the better ones too: its GPA of 3.2 is higher than 65 of the 70 other email apps we grade.

What you could make

- Calendar: an app builder makes this well.

What you could not

- An email client: sending, receiving, threading and searching years of mail.
- Filters that read every message as it arrives.

- ✕ A real app for iOS and Android. Something home-made would be a web page.
- ✕ The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. GMX Mail's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
