GPA, above 119 of the 136 other writing tools we grade

GrammarCheck is a free web editor where you paste text and get spelling, grammar and punctuation prompts, with a separate Deep Check option. It also shows reading time, readability and sentence-length statistics, and the site carries guides and infographics on common errors. The about page calls it the first online grammar checker, launched in the late 1990s.

To get you started, here are 8 things to know about GrammarCheck.net, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> The site says its checks don't guarantee accuracy, text may be sent to a third-party API provider, and it has no extension or Word add-on.
>
> From our report card of GrammarCheck.net

1 Best for a quick no-cost grammar check in the browser

GrammarCheck.net is a browser page that checks spelling, grammar and punctuation at no cost.

2 It is free

GrammarCheck.net has no paid plan at all. The whole online editor, including Free Check and Deep Check, with no paid plans listed.

3 It runs on Web

Web.

4 Free Check and Deep Check

Two buttons under the text box run a standard check or a deeper one that, per the site's disclaimer, sends text to a third-party API.

5 Readability and reading time

Estimates readability on a 100-point scale for a chosen audience, plus speaking and reading time, once a text has 10 words.

6 Sentence flow score

Highlights sentence lengths and scores how much they vary, to flag monotonous rhythm.

7 A 3.0 GPA, above 119 of 136

That is against the other writing tools we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

8 Keep it

GrammarCheck.net is free, so making your own would save you nothing.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD	GrammarCheck.net	Graded Nov 13, 2026
SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	A	$0 for the whole editor, with no paid plans.
Free plan and trial	A	The online editor, Free Check and Deep Check are free, with no paid plans listed.
Features	C	Spelling, grammar and punctuation, readability stats, a flow score and writing goals. It does that job fully, but it's a smaller one than a full assistant.
Ease of use	B	No rating on record, but paste text into a web page with nothing to set up.
Platforms and integrations	C	Web only, with no extension, app or add-in listed.
Grade point average		Very good, out of 4.0 3.0

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who GrammarCheck.net is for

- ✓ Fits if you want a quick check of a paragraph at no cost
- ✓ Works for occasional writers who don't want an account

Who it is not for

- ✕ Skip it if you write in Word or Docs, because no add-in or extension is listed
- ✕ Not for you if your text is private, since the disclaimer says text may go to a third-party API provider
- ✕ Too light for fine editing, as the site says automated checks may miss errors
- ✕ Watch out: the site may earn commissions on third-party installs it points to

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ A quick proofread of an email or essay without installing anything
- ✓ Students who want readability and sentence-length feedback
- ✓ Occasional users who do not want an account or a subscription

Worth knowing

- ⓘ It is a web page only; the site lists no desktop app, extension or Word add-on.
- ⓘ The disclaimer says text entered in the editor or Deep Check may be sent to a third-party API provider.
- ⓘ The site says automated checks do not guarantee accuracy and may miss errors.
- ⓘ The editor page offers a free account and app; the disclaimer says the site may earn commissions on third-party installs.

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

119/136

Other writing tools it is graded above

GrammarCheck.net's GPA of 3.0 is higher than 119 of the 136 other writing tools we grade, and level with 9.

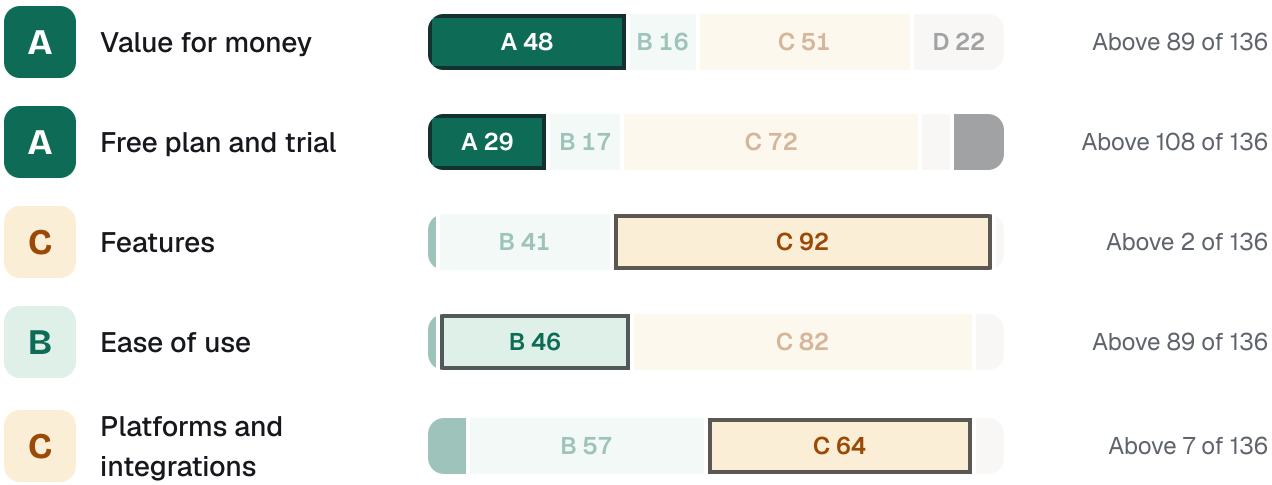

It stands best on free plan and trial (A, above 108 of 136) and worst on features (C, above 2).

GrammarCheck.net has no paid plan.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. Nothing scores higher for less, though at least one tool matches that score at a lower price.

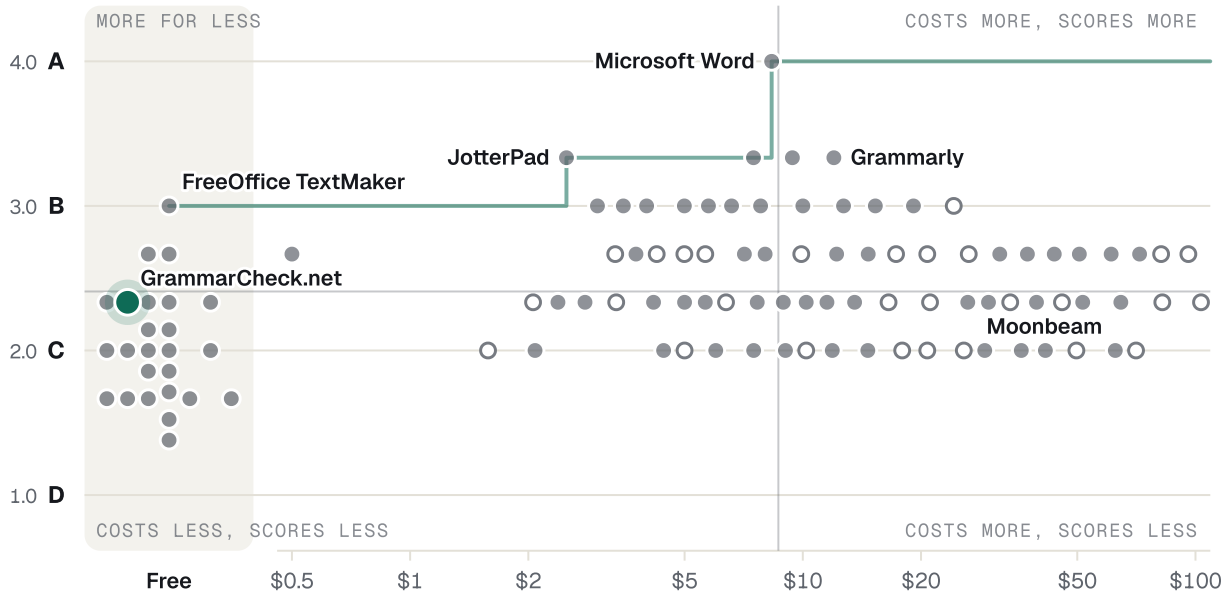

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 137 writing tools we grade, cut by the letter each got. GrammarCheck.net's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 107 writing tools. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. GrammarCheck.net is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

GrammarCheck.net is free, so making your own would save you nothing.

It is one of the better ones too: its GPA of 3.0 is higher than 119 of the 136 other writing tools we grade.

What you could make

- Goals: an app builder makes this well.

What you could not

- Grammar checking as you type, wherever you type.

What this rests on. GrammarCheck.net's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
