TOOLGPA REPORT CARD Interviewer.AI Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	D	$166 a month on yearly billing ($199 monthly), above the $149 where the category's dearer quarter starts, for 50 credits. Fraud checks and summaries need the $333 plan.
Free plan and trial	D	A 14-day trial with no charge until it ends, which tells us a card is needed. A trial that needs a card is a D.
Features	C	One-way video, resume matching, avatar interviews and a branded portal. Avatar interviews and fraud checks aren't on Essential, and ATS links are Enterprise only.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record, and the listing shows credits and job posts to manage. That puts it at C.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web product that lists Workday, SAP SuccessFactors, Greenhouse, SmartRecruiters and Bullhorn, but only on Enterprise. No desktop or phone app, so B.

Grade point average Weak, out of 4.0 1.8

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Price against what you get

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Interviewer.AI you would be making video calls. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 48 of the 101 other hiring and applicant tracking tools grade higher. It costs $1,992 a year.

What you could make

- Applicant tracking and reports: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- Video calls.

- It plugs into other products, Workday, SAP SuccessFactors and Greenhouse among them.
- AI features, unless you pay a model provider for each request yourself.

What this rests on. Interviewer.AI's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
