Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.0

GPA, above 18 of the 47 other inventory management tools we grade

Inventory Source is dropshipping automation software. It pulls product, price and stock data from dropship suppliers, publishes it to an online store or marketplace, and on its Full Automation plans routes orders to suppliers and sends tracking back. It charges a monthly fee and says it takes no commission on sales.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Inventory Source, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> Supplier feeds and store connections have to be mapped.
> From our grade for ease of use

1 Best for dropship supplier feeds and sync

Inventory Source syncs supplier product feeds to your store, from $199 a month.

2 Paid plans start at $199 a month

As its pricing page puts it: $199 per month for inventory automation; supplier directory free.

3 There is a free plan

Supplier directory: browse all dropship suppliers, preview product feeds and see supplier contact info.

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Supplier feed sync

Updates stock levels and supplier prices on your store; the default check runs twice a day.

6 Optimized sync

Pulls data as often as the supplier updates its feed. It is listed on every paid plan.

7 Catalog manager

Edit supplier data, adjust pricing rules, map variants and attributes before products go live.

8 A 2.0 GPA, above 18 of 47

That is against the other inventory management tools we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

To replace Inventory Source you would be making suppliers who ship each order for you. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

The report card

Best for dropship supplier feeds and sync

Inventory Source syncs supplier product feeds to your store, from $199 a month. Order routing needs the dearer Full Automation plans, and each extra integration costs $50 a month.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD

Inventory Source

Graded Nov 12, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	C	$199 a month for Inventory Automation Starter, between the category's middle of $135 and its dearer quarter at $349. Full Automation starts at $299.
Free plan and trial	D	Only the supplier directory is free, with no automation, and no trial is listed for the paid plans.
Features	C	Supplier feed sync, catalog manager, order and tracking automation and a supplier directory. Order routing needs Full Automation, and the first two plans only sync product data.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. Supplier feeds and store connections have to be mapped.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web only, with Shopify, WooCommerce and BigCommerce among its listed integrations.

Grade point average — Fair, out of 4.0 2.0

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Inventory Source is for

- ✓ Fits if you dropship from US suppliers and want feeds synced automatically
- ✓ Works for sellers who want to browse suppliers free first

Who it is not for

- ✗ Pricey if you add stores, since each integration beyond the included 2 or 10 is $50 a month
- ✗ Not for you if you want order routing on a cheap plan, as it needs Full Automation
- ✗ Watch out: orders over the plan allowance cost $0.30 or $0.20 each
- ✗ Watch out: the page does not say whether monthly rates are billed monthly or yearly
- ✗ Skip it if you want a trial, as only the directory is free

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Sellers listing products from several dropship suppliers
- ✓ Stores that need prices and stock kept current by supplier feed
- ✓ Merchants who prefer a flat monthly fee to a sales commission

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Plans carry a $50 a month charge for each integration beyond the 2 or 10 included.
- ⓘ Order routing needs a Full Automation plan; Inventory Automation only syncs product data.
- ⓘ The pricing page does not say whether the monthly rates are billed monthly or annually.
- ⓘ US Direct charges credit card and order fees, which Inventory Source's own plans do not.

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

18/47

Other inventory management tools it is graded above

Inventory Source's GPA of 2.0 is higher than 18 of the 47 other inventory management tools we grade, and level with 12.

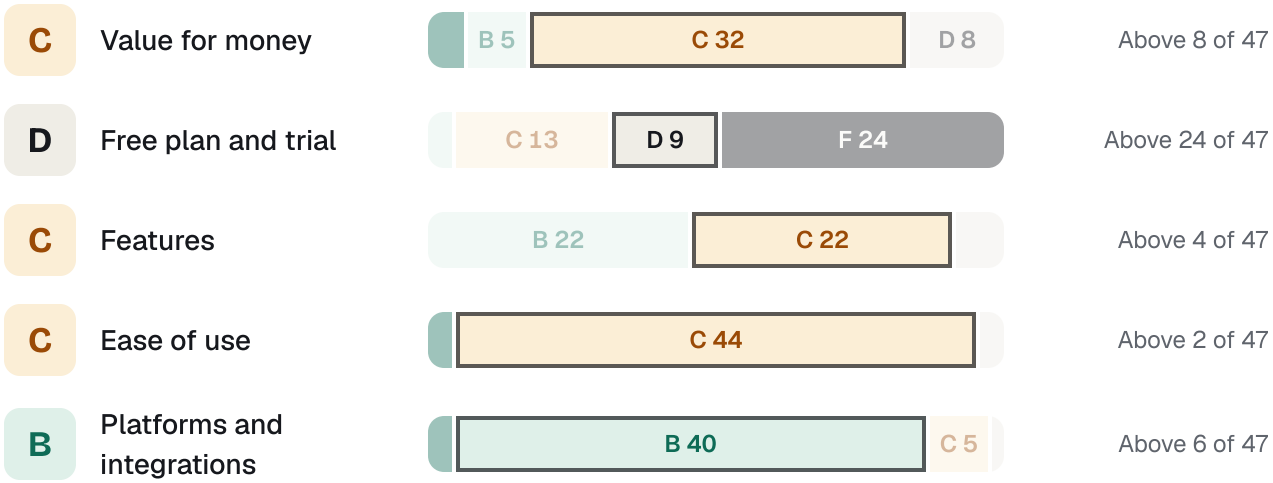

It stands best on platforms and integrations (B, above 6 of 47) and worst on free plan and trial (D, above 24).

Its paid plans start at $199 a month, against a middle price of $121.50 for the category: 18 of the 31 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 6 tools score higher and cost less.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Inventory Source you would be making suppliers who ship each order for you. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

It costs $2,388 a year.

What you could make

- Inventory: an app builder makes this well.

What you could not

- Suppliers who ship each order for you.

- Checkout, card payments and sales tax handled for you.
- It plugs into other products, Shopify, WooCommerce and BigCommerce among them, and has an API.

What this rests on. Inventory Source's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
