Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.0

GPA, above 23 of the 98 other course and community platforms we grade iSpring Learn, shown on the vendor's site as iSpring LMS, is a cloud learning management system for onboarding and training staff. It offers course delivery, automatic enrollment, reports, a knowledge base and connectors to HR and business software. Customers pay for active users only, meaning people who logged in during the month.

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Pay for active users

Any number of users can be registered; only those who log in at least once during a month are counted for billing.

6 Course library connectors

Native integration with course libraries such as Udemy, Go1 and LinkedIn Learning, for adding ready-made content.

7 Business software connectors

Native connectors for Salesforce, MS Azure, MS Exchange and BambooHR, with user import and automatic course enrollment.

8 A 2.0 GPA, above 23 of 98

That is against the other course and community platforms we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 You could make this

What iSpring Learn does at its core is online courses and reports, and that is the kind of thing an AI app builder makes well.

Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	D	The listed price is $6.91 per active user a month for 100 users, $8,286 a year, so the floor is about $690 a month, several times the category's $135 dearest-tenth line.
Free plan and trial	C	A 30-day trial with no card. There is no free plan.
Features	C	Pay-for-active-users billing, course library connectors, business software connectors, reports and a knowledge base. The page is thin on features.
Ease of use	C	A web app where users, courses and connectors have to be set up. No store rating is on record.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web, with Salesforce, Azure, Exchange, BambooHR, Udemy, Go1 and LinkedIn Learning on the list.

Grade point average — Fair, out of 4.0 2.0

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who iSpring Learn is for

- ✓ Fits if you train 100 or more people and want to pay per active user
- ✓ Works for companies with BambooHR or Salesforce

Who it is not for

- ✕ Pricey if you have under 100 users, as the listed price starts at 100 users
- ✕ Skip it if you want a free plan, as there is only a 30-day trial
- ✕ Watch out: no government, non-profit or academic discounts
- ✕ Watch out: plan changes go through iSpring Sales, and the Enterprise tier is not priced

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Companies of 100 or more people onboarding and training staff
- ✓ Teams that want to pay only for users who actually log in
- ✓ Organizations connecting training to Salesforce or BambooHR

Worth knowing

- ⓘ The listed price starts at 100 users; the vendor says smaller counts need a custom arrangement.
- ⓘ The pricing page states that subscriptions include no government, non-profit or academic discounts.
- ⓘ Plan changes are made by contacting iSpring Sales rather than in the product.
- ⓘ The pricing page shows a single per-user figure; confirm what the Enterprise tier adds with sales.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

You could make this

What iSpring Learn does at its core is online courses and reports, and that is the kind of thing an AI app builder makes well.

You would give up one thing, listed below, and little else. It costs $82.92 a year. An AI app builder starts at about $20 a month on our listings, and you only need it while you build.

What you could make

- Online courses and reports: an app builder makes these well.
- It runs in a browser, which is where something home-made would run too.

What you could not

- It plugs into other products, Salesforce, Microsoft Azure and Microsoft Exchange among them, and has an API.

What this rests on. iSpring Learn's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
