Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

3.2

GPA, above 43 of the 49 other password managers we grade

KeeWeb is a free, open-source password manager that opens KeePass database files. It runs as a desktop app on macOS, Windows and Linux, and as a web app in the browser, and it can open files from Dropbox, Google Drive, OneDrive or your own server and keep them synced.

To get you started, here are 8 things to know about KeeWeb, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> It has no iOS or Android app, no extension, no hosted vault, and a single author with donation funding rather than a company behind it.
> From our report card of KeeWeb

1 Best for a free KeePass file editor in your browser or desktop

KeeWeb opens KeePass files on Mac, Windows, Linux or the web, free with no limits.

2 It is free

KeeWeb has no paid plan at all. The whole app is free, with no trial, demo version or limits, according to the site.

3 It runs on 4 platforms

Web, macOS, Windows and Linux.

4 KeePass file compatibility

Works with KeePass databases, so a vault can be opened here and in other KeePass-compatible apps.

5 Cloud and server sync

Opens files from Dropbox, Google Drive, OneDrive or your own server and syncs changes across devices automatically.

6 Offline access

Files are saved for offline use, including ones opened from Dropbox, and changes sync when the connection returns.

7 A 3.2 GPA, above 43 of 49

That is against the other password managers we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

8 Keep it

KeeWeb is free, so making your own would save you nothing.

Best for a free KeePass file editor in your browser or desktop

KeeWeb opens KeePass files on Mac, Windows, Linux or the web, free with no limits. It has no iOS or Android app, no extension, no hosted vault, and a single author with donation funding rather than a company behind it.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD	KeeWeb	Graded Nov 13, 2026
SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	A	The whole app is free with no trial or limits, which the site states.
Free plan and trial	A	Free outright, with no plan, no cap and no account to open.
Features	C	KeePass compatibility, tags, history and multiple files. It lists no autofill or extension.
Ease of use	B	You open a KeePass file and go, though a file and a sync location come first. No store rating on record.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web, Mac, Windows and Linux, with sync through Dropbox, Google Drive, OneDrive or your own server. No native phone apps.
Grade point average		Very good, out of 4.0 3.2

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who KeeWeb is for

- ✓ Fits if you already keep a KeePass file and want a nicer window onto it
- ✓ Works for people who store the file in their own cloud or server

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you want phone apps, as mobile browsers can only view and copy
- ✗ Watch out: there is no browser extension or autofill on the site
- ✗ Not for you if you want hosted sync, since KeeWeb does not host vaults
- ✗ Tight if you want paid support: it is one named author funded by donations

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ KeePass users who want a modern desktop or browser interface
- ✓ People who want a free password manager with no account to create
- ✓ Users who keep their database in their own cloud storage or server

Worth knowing

- ⓘ There are no native iOS or Android apps; mobile browsers can view details and copy passwords only.
- ⓘ Sync depends on your own Dropbox, Google Drive, OneDrive or server storage; KeeWeb does not host vaults.
- ⓘ No browser extension or autofill is listed on the site.
- ⓘ It is a project with one named author and donation funding, not a company with paid support.

KeePass file compatibility

Works with KeePass databases, so a vault can be opened here and in other KeePass-compatible apps.

Cloud and server sync

Opens files from Dropbox, Google Drive, OneDrive or your own server and syncs changes across devices automatically.

Offline access

Files are saved for offline use, including ones opened from Dropbox, and changes sync when the connection returns.

Multiple files and one search

Open several database files at once and search all entries from a single box, with regular-expression and field filters.

History and tags

Every change goes into entry history that can be rolled back, and entries can be organized with tags and color marks.

Protected fields and password generator

Fields can be hidden and are held in memory in a more protected way; the generator takes any length and symbol set.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

43/49

Other password managers it is graded above

KeeWeb's GPA of 3.2 is higher than 43 of the 49 other password managers we grade, and level with 3.

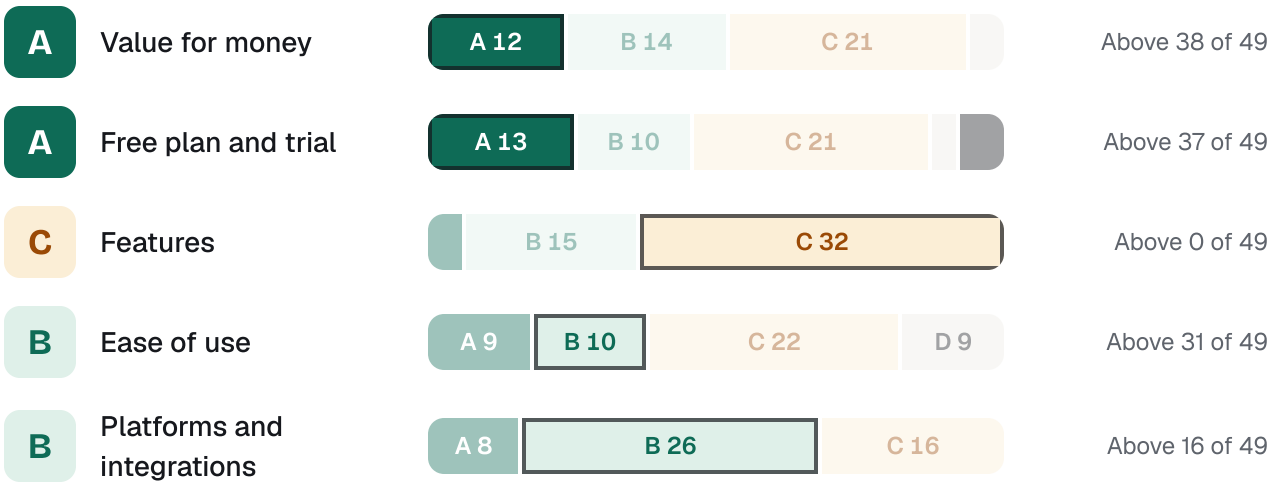

It stands best on value for money (A, above 38 of 49) and worst on features (C, above 0).

KeeWeb has no paid plan.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.7 out of 4. Nothing scores higher for less, though at least one tool matches that score at a lower price.

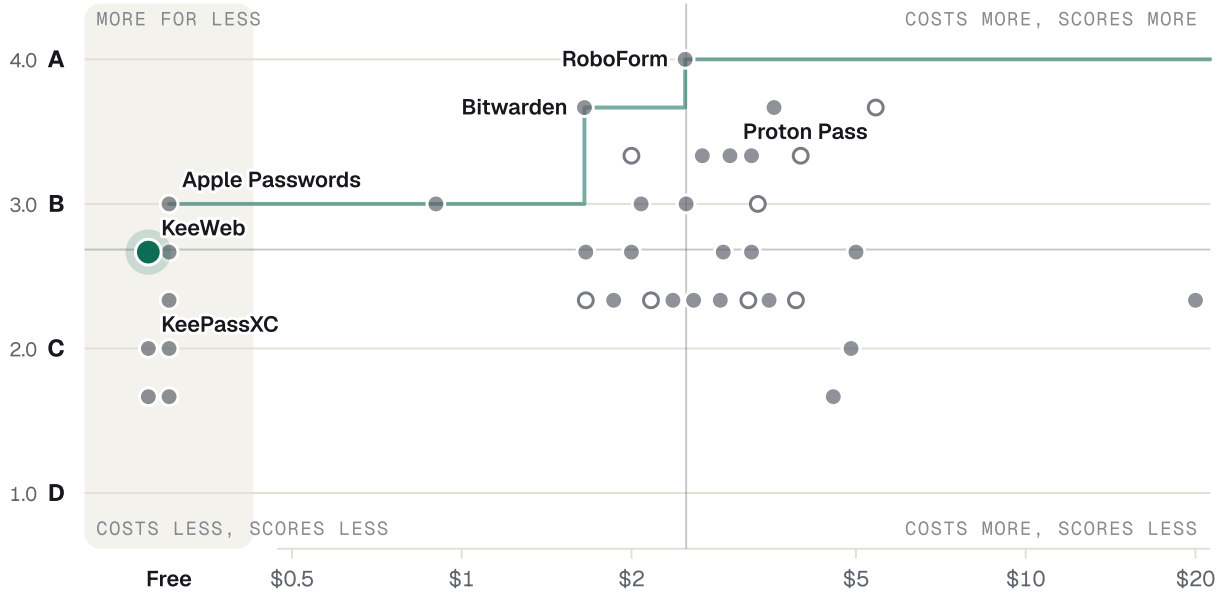

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 50 password managers we grade, cut by the letter each got. KeeWeb's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 38 password managers. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. KeeWeb is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

KeeWeb is free, so making your own would save you nothing.

And it is not the kind of software a weekend replaces. It is one of the better ones too: its GPA of 3.2 is higher than 43 of the 49 other password managers we grade.

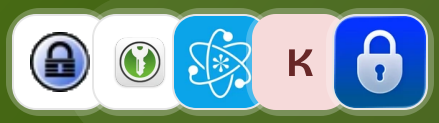

What you could not

- ✕ A password vault, the last thing anyone should make for themselves.
- ✕ Apps for macOS, Windows and Linux that stay in step with each other.

What this rests on. KeeWeb's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
