Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.0

GPA, above 17 of the 35 other law practice software we grade

LawToolBox calculates rules-based court deadlines and syncs them to calendars, and adds matter and document management built on Microsoft 365 (Outlook, Teams, SharePoint and OneNote). It is priced per user per month on a sliding scale by firm size, with a minimum one-year commitment.

To get you started, here are 8 things to know about LawToolBox, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for court deadlines and calendaring in Microsoft 365

LawToolBox calculates rules-based court deadlines and syncs them to calendars, with matter and document management in Microsoft 365.

2 Paid plans start at $21 a month for each person

As its pricing page puts it: $21 per user / month, billed annually ($24 billed monthly), at 80 or more users.

3 It runs on Web

Web.

4 Rules-based deadlines

Calculates deadlines for thousands of state and federal courts from a trial or event date and syncs them to a calendar. The vendor says attorneys watch court rules for changes daily.

5 Matter workspaces

Creates a shared inbox, document folder structure, calendar and notebook in Microsoft 365 for each matter.

6 Document management

Connects an existing document management system to deadlines, or uses Outlook, Teams and SharePoint as a lean one.

7 A 2.0 GPA, above 17 of 35

That is against the other law practice software we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

8 Keep it

To replace LawToolBox you would be making connections to other products, each kept working as those products change. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

Best for court deadlines and calendaring in Microsoft 365

LawToolBox calculates rules-based court deadlines and syncs them to calendars, with matter and document management in Microsoft 365. It's $39 a user a month for 2-9 users, with a minimum one-year commitment and no refund of the current term.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD	LawToolBox	Graded Nov 13, 2026
SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	B	$39 a user a month billed yearly for 2-9 users, inside the law-practice category's cheapest quarter (under $49). It drops to $21 at 80+ users.
Free plan and trial	F	No free plan and no free trial are listed anywhere on the pages we read.
Features	C	Deadline calculator, calendaring, matter and document management, Outlook and Teams add-ins. But AI and other integrated solutions cost extra, with no price shown.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. You set it up inside Microsoft 365 and connect your document system.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web with Microsoft 365 and Teams add-ins, plus NetDocuments, iManage, MyCase, Filevine and Smokeball.
Grade point average		Fair, out of 4.0 2.0

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who LawToolBox is for

- ✓ Fits if your firm already lives in Outlook and Teams
- ✓ Works for small firms that need court deadlines on the calendar

Who it is not for

- ✕ Skip it if you want a trial, because none is listed
- ✕ Tight if you want a short commitment, since it's a minimum of one year with no refund of the term
- ✕ Watch out: pricing assumes a licence for every Microsoft 365 mailbox in the firm
- ✕ Watch out: connecting NetDocuments, iManage, ECFX or InfoTrack costs $4 more per user

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Firms that already live in Microsoft 365 and Outlook
- ✓ Firms wanting court-rules deadlines alongside an existing case management system

Worth knowing

- ⓘ It is a minimum one-year commitment. A subscription can be ended any time, but the vendor does not refund the current term.
- ⓘ Pricing assumes a license for every M365 licensed mailbox in the firm.
- ⓘ Connecting NetDocuments, iManage, ECFX or InfoTrack costs an additional $4 per user.
- ⓘ AI and other integrated solutions cost extra, and the site gives no price for them.

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

17/35

Other law practice software it is graded above

LawToolBox's GPA of 2.0 is higher than 17 of the 35 other law practice software we grade, and level with 11.

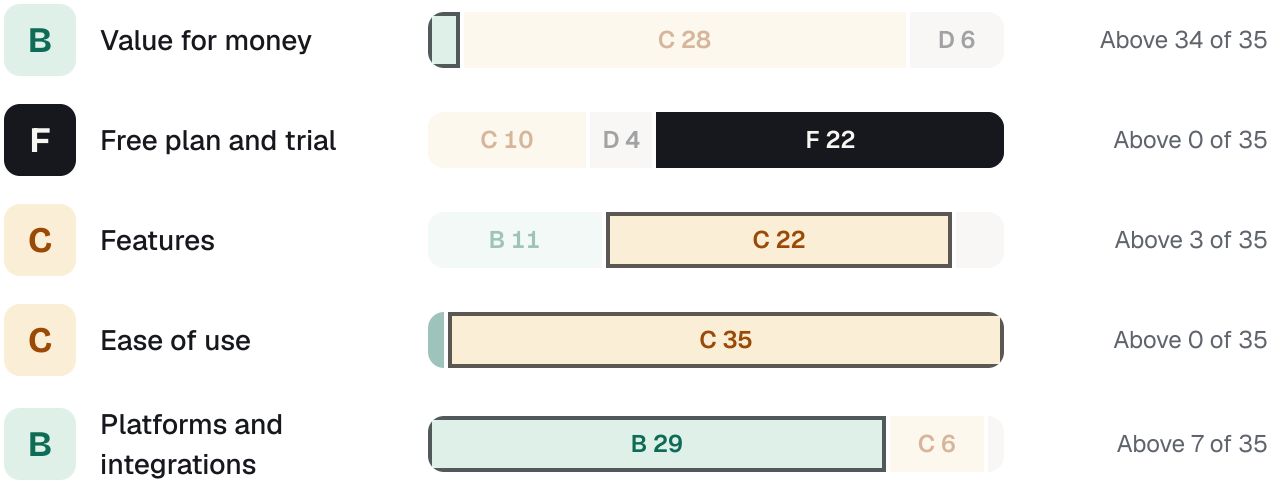

It stands best on value for money (B, above 34 of 35) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Its paid plans start at $21 a month for each person, against a middle price of $50 for the category: 0 of the 12 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4, and no tool on the category's chart scores higher without costing more.

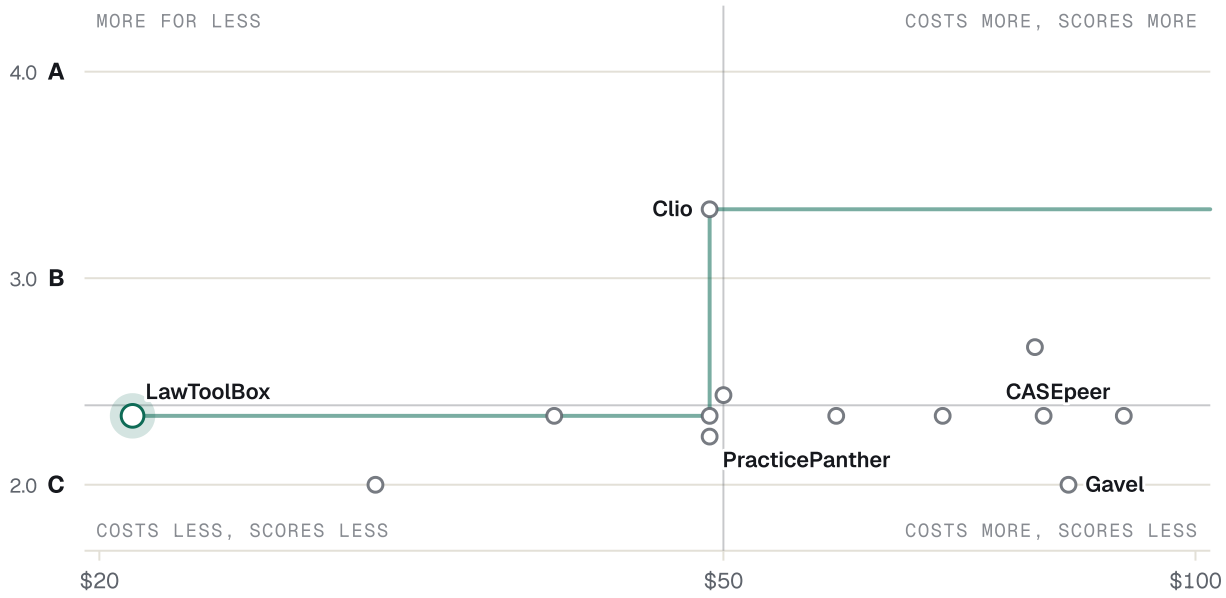

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 36 law practice software we grade, cut by the letter each got. LawToolBox's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 13 law practice software. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. LawToolBox is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace LawToolBox you would be making connections to other products, each kept working as those products change. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

It costs $252 a year.

What you could make

- Calendar, case management, documents and reports: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- Connections to other products, each kept working as those products change.

- ✕ It is priced for each person, which means accounts and billing for a team.
- ✕ AI features, unless you pay a model provider for each request yourself.

What this rests on. LawToolBox's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
