Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.0

GPA, above 17 of the 35 other law practice software we grade

LegalServer is web-based case management software for civil legal aid organizations, public defender offices and government law offices, not for-profit firms. Intake, workflows and case types are configured without code. It publishes no prices; buyers schedule a call.

To get you started, here are 7 things to know about LegalServer, taken from its own pages and our grades.

2 It runs on Web

Web.

3 Intake and case creation

Intake tools are configured to match an organization's data entry and workflows, with conflict checks and a poverty-level assessment tool cited by customers.

4 Documents and discovery

Files can be stored and searched in cases, and discovery can be uploaded where it fits the workflow.

5 Timekeeping and calendar

A timekeeping suite and a shared calendar for appointments, events, tasks and deadlines.

6 A 2.0 GPA, above 17 of 35

That is against the other law practice software we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

7 Keep it

The plain part of LegalServer you could make: case management, time tracking, calendar, documents and reports. What surrounds it you could not. The 4 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

Who LegalServer is for

- ✓ Fits if you run a legal aid, public defender or government law office
- ✓ Makes sense if you want to configure intake and case types without code

Who it is not for

- ✕ Not for you if you run a for-profit firm, as the vendor says it doesn't target them
- ✕ Skip it if you need a price first, since only a call is offered
- ✕ Watch out: the text-message module is an add-on
- ✕ Skip it if you want to try it yourself, as no trial is listed

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Civil legal aid groups and public defender offices
- ✓ Government law offices that report to funders or agencies

Worth knowing

- ⓘ No prices are published; the site directs visitors to schedule a call.
- ⓘ It is built for legal aid, public defense and government offices, and the vendor says it does not target the profit needs of a for-profit law firm.
- ⓘ The SMS text module is described as an add-on feature.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

17/35

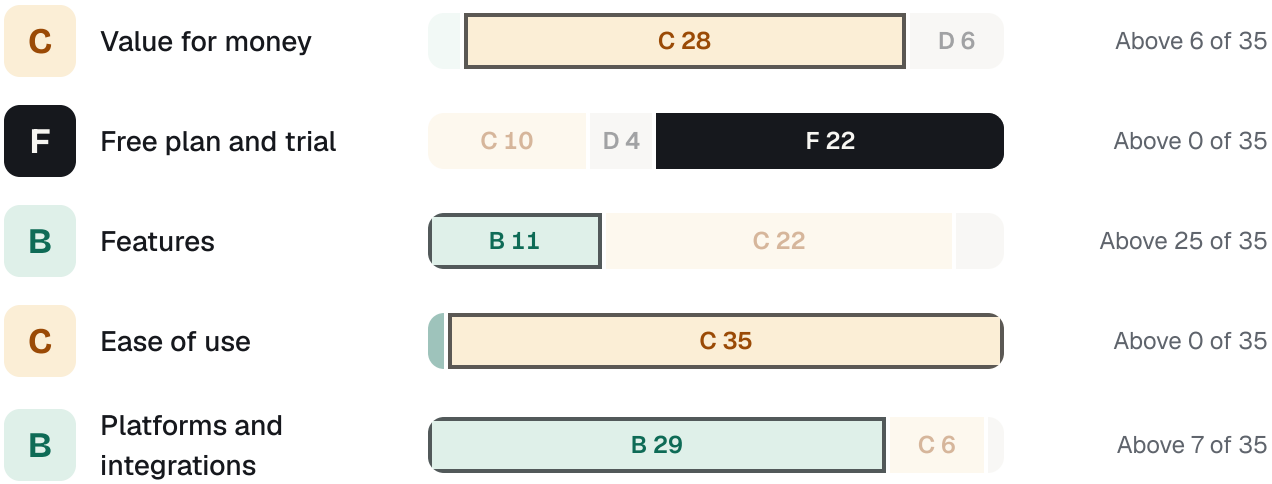

Other law practice software it is graded above

LegalServer's GPA of 2.0 is higher than 17 of the 35 other law practice software we grade, and level with 11.

It stands best on features (B, above 25 of 35) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 36 law practice software we grade, cut by the letter each got. LegalServer's own letter is outlined.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

The plain part of LegalServer you could make: case management, time tracking, calendar, documents and reports. What surrounds it you could not. The 4 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

What you could make

- Case management, time tracking, calendar, documents and reports: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- It plugs into other products, Microsoft Entra ID, SharePoint and Google Workspace among them, and has an API.
- AI features, unless you pay a model provider for each request yourself.
- Sharing with other people, which means accounts and invitations.
- The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. LegalServer's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
