Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

8/98

Other course and community platforms it is graded above

MemberMouse's GPA of 1.8 is higher than 8 of the 98 other course and community platforms we grade, and level with 14.

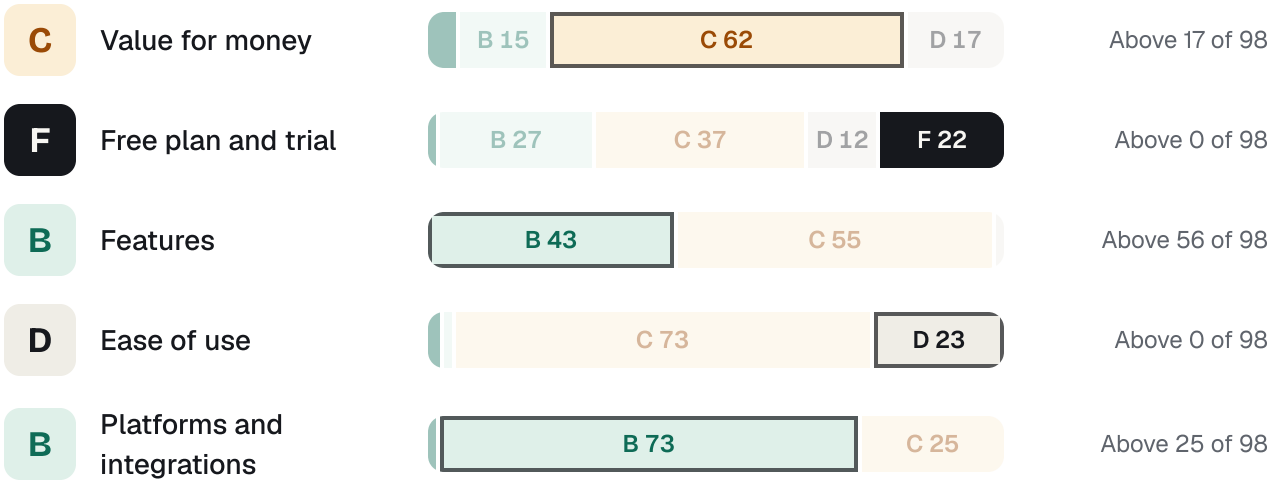

It stands best on features (B, above 56 of 98) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Its paid plans start at $24.92 a month when paid by the year, against a middle price of $36 for the category: 21 of the 65 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 7 tools score higher and cost less.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 78 course and community platforms. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. MemberMouse is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace MemberMouse you would be making email sent in volume that still reaches the inbox. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 76 of the 98 other course and community platforms grade higher. It costs $299 a year.

What you could make

- Online courses and reports: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- Email sent in volume that still reaches the inbox.

- A members' space with posts, chat and events that people keep coming back to.
- It plugs into other products, Stripe, PayPal and Braintree among them.
- The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. MemberMouse's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
