Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.6

GPA, above 47 of the 55 other field service apps we grade

Orderry is business management software for repair shops, auto shops, equipment maintenance and field service companies. It covers job and work-order management, scheduling, estimates with e-signature approval, invoicing and payments, inventory and employee time and payroll. A mobile app for work orders is included on every plan.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Orderry, taken from its own pages and our grades.

>
> Inventory, work order types and statuses have to be set up before it fits your shop.
>
> From our grade for ease of use

1 Best for repair shops and small service businesses

Orderry is job, repair and inventory software with estimates, invoices, payroll and an API, from $39 a month for 2 people.

2 Paid plans start at $39 a month

As its pricing page puts it: $39 per month, billed monthly (Hobby, 2 employees).

3 You can try it first

7-day free trial, no credit card required

4 It runs on 3 platforms

Web, iOS and Android.

5 Job management and scheduler

Jobs move through configurable types, statuses and deadlines, and employees and resources are scheduled in day and week calendar views.

6 Estimates and invoices

Estimates can be shared with clients, approved online with an e-signature and turned into jobs. Invoices track status and send payment reminders.

7 Inventory and warehousing

Barcode generation and scanning, serial tracking, bin locations, purchase orders and stocktaking across any number of warehouses.

8 A 2.6 GPA, above 47 of 55

That is against the other field service apps we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

The plain part of Orderry you could make: job scheduling, quotes and estimates, invoicing, inventory and time tracking. What surrounds it you could not. The 5 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

The report card

Best for repair shops and small service businesses

Orderry is job, repair and inventory software with estimates, invoices, payroll and an API, from $39 a month for 2 people. Hobby is capped at 100 work orders every 30 days, the price grows with every extra employee and location, and human support is held for dearer plans.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD — Orderry — Graded Nov 12, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	B	Hobby is $39 a month for 2 employees and Startup $69 for 3, about $23 a head, inside the category's cheaper quarter. Extra employees are $6 a month and extra locations $49 on Startup.
Free plan and trial	C	A 7-day free trial needs no credit card, and there is no free plan.
Features	B	Job management and a scheduler, estimates and invoices, inventory and warehousing, customer communication, employee time and payroll, and an API with webhooks and MCP. The listing shows no gap in the core work.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. Inventory, work order types and statuses have to be set up before it fits your shop.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web, iPhone and Android, with Shopify, WooCommerce, Etsy, Square, Stripe and phone links. No desktop app.

Grade point average — Good, out of 4.0 2.6

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Orderry is for

- ✓ Fits if you run a repair shop with parts to track and a handful of staff
- ✓ Works for shops that sell online through Shopify, WooCommerce or Etsy too

Who it is not for

- ✗ Tight if you are on Hobby: it stops at 100 work orders or sales per 30 days and basic features
- ✗ Pricey if you add people, since every extra employee and location is a charge
- ✗ Skip it if you need a personal manager or live human support, which sit on higher plans
- ✗ Watch out: Startup stops at 15 employees, and the 7-day trial is short

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Repair shops that need tickets, parts and invoices in one system
- ✓ Small field service crews that also sell parts or run a counter
- ✓ Businesses with several locations, priced per extra location

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Pricing is per month for 3 employees (2 on Hobby) plus per-employee and per-location add-ons, so the total grows with headcount.
- ⓘ Hobby is capped at 100 work orders or sales per 30 days and basic features, and Startup at 15 employees.
- ⓘ Priority human support, a personal manager and customized team training are limited to higher plans; Startup gets automated support assistance and the help center.
- ⓘ The pricing page notes a separate Asia site for products and prices in that region.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

47/55

Other field service apps it is graded above

Orderry's GPA of 2.6 is higher than 47 of the 55 other field service apps we grade, and level with 6.

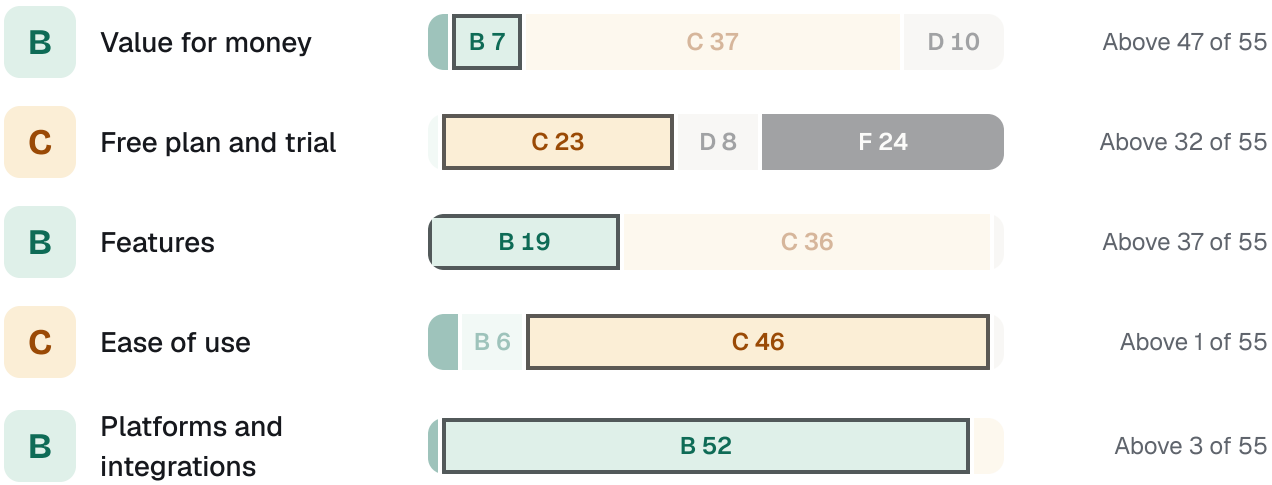

It stands best on value for money (B, above 47 of 55) and worst on ease of use (C, above 1).

Its paid plans start at $39 a month, against a middle price of $49 for the category: 11 of the 36 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.7 out of 4. 3 tools score higher and cost less.

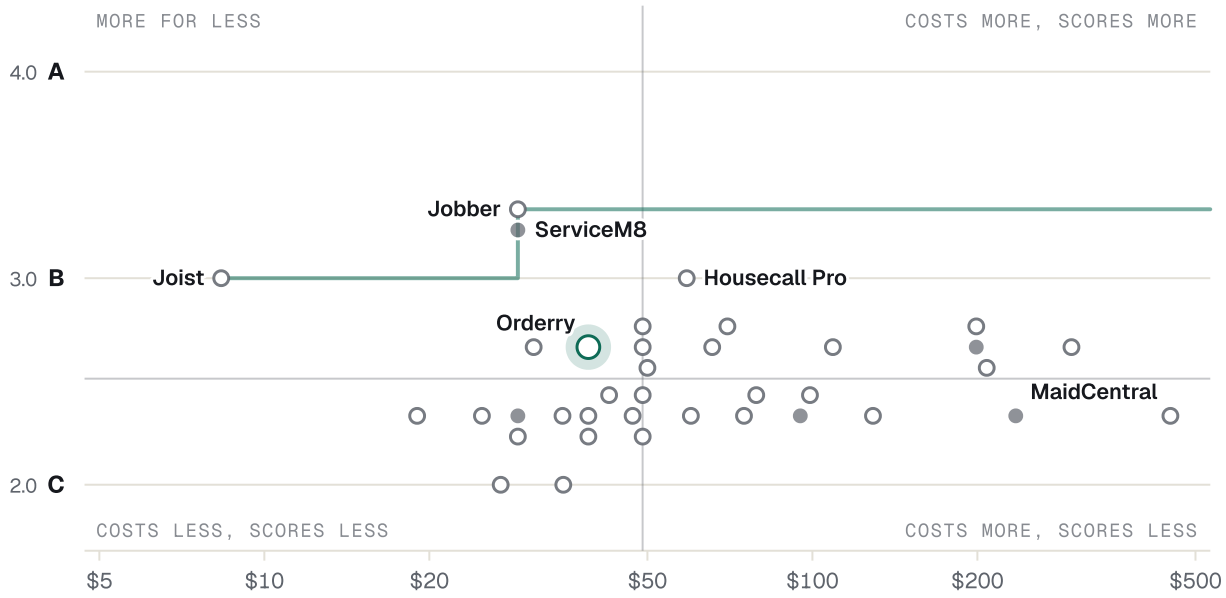

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 56 field service apps we grade, cut by the letter each got. Orderry's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 37 field service apps. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Orderry is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

The plain part of Orderry you could make: job scheduling, quotes and estimates, invoicing, inventory and time tracking. What surrounds it you could not. The 5 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

It is one of the better ones too: its GPA of 2.6 is higher than 47 of the 55 other field service apps we grade. It costs $468 a year.

What you could make

- Job scheduling, quotes and estimates, invoicing, inventory and time tracking: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- Scanning barcodes with a phone camera or a scanner.
- A real app for iOS and Android. Something home-made would be a web page.
- It plugs into other products, Shopify, WooCommerce and Etsy among them, and has an API.
- Sharing with other people, which means accounts and invitations.
- The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. Orderry's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
