Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.0

GPA, above 13 of the 91 other file storage and sync services we grade

Peergos is an end-to-end encrypted storage, sharing and sync service run by a non-profit. Its site says file names, sizes, folder structure and the list of people you share with are hidden from the server as well as file contents. Paid hosted plans differ only in storage, and the server software is open source, so you can run it yourself for nothing.

To get you started, here are 8 things to know about Peergos, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> There is no free hosted plan, macOS cannot yet mount the drive, and there is no iOS app.
>
> From our report card of Peergos

1 Best for end-to-end encrypted storage run by a non-profit

Peergos is end-to-end encrypted storage, sharing and sync run by a non-profit, with the server open source.

2 Paid plans start at about $4.02 a month

As its pricing page puts it: £3 per month for 200 GB, billed yearly (£4 billed monthly).

3 It runs on 5 platforms

Web, Windows, macOS, Linux and Android.

4 Metadata hidden from the server

The site says file names, sizes, folder layout, modification times and the list of people you share with are not visible to the server, beyond the file contents.

5 Folder sync and mounting

Folders sync in both directions on the desktop apps and Android. The drive can be mounted natively on Windows, Linux and Android, and is reachable over WebDAV.

6 Secret links

Files can be shared by link with an expiry, a password and optional write access.

7 A 2.0 GPA, above 13 of 91

That is against the other file storage and sync services we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

8 Keep it

To replace Peergos you would be making files kept in step across devices without losing one. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD	Peergos	Graded Nov 13, 2026
SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	B	GBP 3 a month for 200 GB billed yearly, inside the cheapest quarter once converted. 1,000 GB is GBP 8 and 3,000 GB GBP 20.
Free plan and trial	F	No free hosted plan and no trial. The only free route is running your own server.
Features	C	Encrypted storage, sharing and sync with file names hidden from the server. The macOS drive cannot mount yet and WebDAV has not landed.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record, and encrypted accounts and keys take some learning.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web, Windows, Mac, Linux and Android. There is no iOS app.
Grade point average		Fair, out of 4.0 2.0

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Peergos is for

- ✓ Fits if you want the server to know nothing about your files
- ✓ Works for people who want to self-host if they choose

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you want a free hosted plan, as the vendor says there is none
- ✗ Not for you if you use an iPhone, as only the browser version works there
- ✗ Watch out: macOS cannot mount the drive yet and WebDAV has not landed
- ✗ Watch out: prices are in pounds, and monthly billing costs GBP 4 against GBP 3 yearly

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ People who want encrypted storage that also protects file names and sharing relationships
- ✓ Anyone who wants the option to host their own server later
- ✓ Users who prefer a non-profit paid by subscribers over a free tier

Worth knowing

- ⓘ There is no free plan on the hosted service; the only no-cost route is running your own server.
- ⓘ Prices are listed in pounds sterling (£), not dollars.
- ⓘ On macOS the drive cannot yet be mounted and WebDAV has not landed, according to the download page.
- ⓘ There is no iOS app listed on the download page; the browser version is the route from an iPhone.

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

13/91

Other file storage and sync services it is graded above

Peergos's GPA of 2.0 is higher than 13 of the 91 other file storage and sync services we grade, and level with 20.

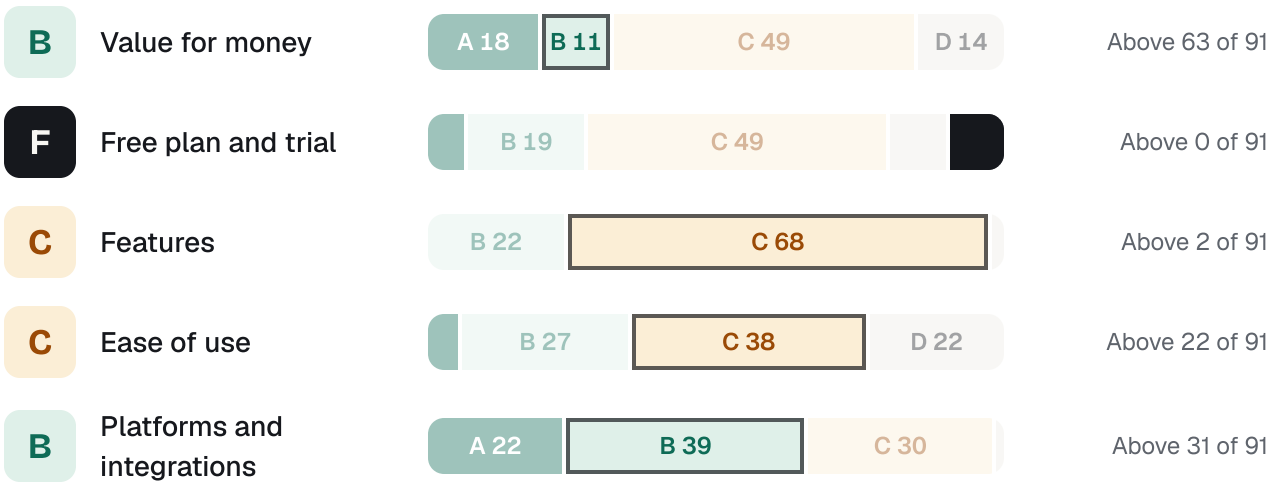

It stands best on value for money (B, above 63 of 91) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Its paid plans start at about $4.02 a month, against a middle price of $6.64 for the category: 18 of the 60 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 13 tools score higher and cost less.

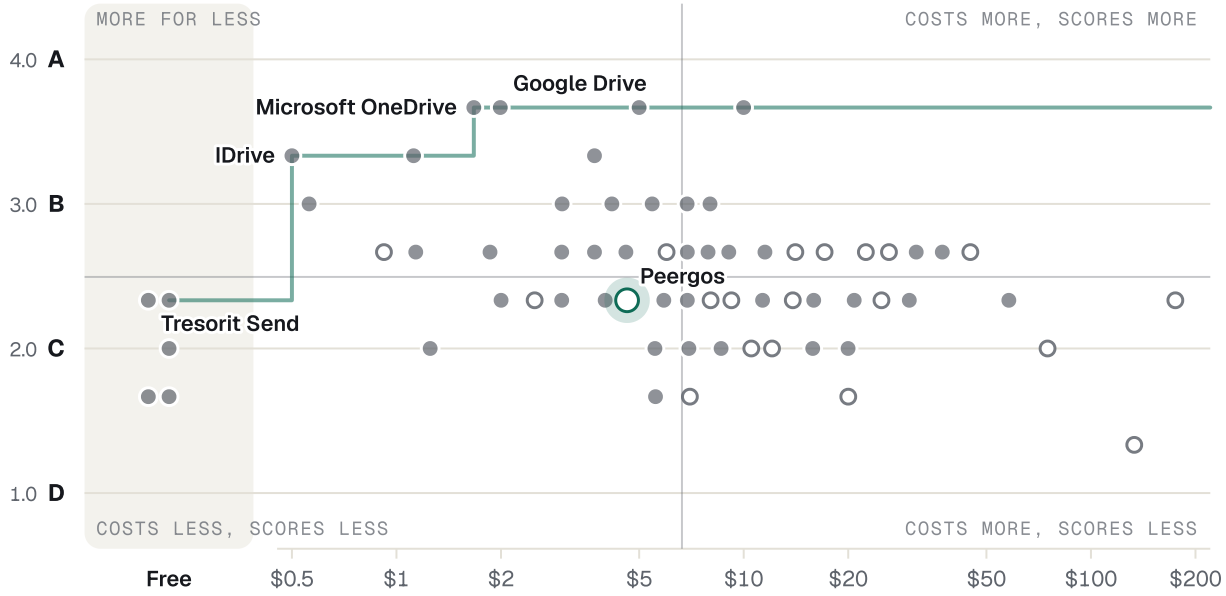

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 92 file storage and sync services we grade, cut by the letter each got. Peergos's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 66 file storage and sync services. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Peergos is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Peergos you would be making files kept in step across devices without losing one. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 58 of the 91 other file storage and sync services grade higher. It costs $48.24 a year. Peergos is open source, so there is a third way: take its code and run it yourself.

What you could make

- Calendar: an app builder makes this well.

What you could not

- Files kept in step across devices without losing one.
- Storing and serving files for other people.
- Apps for macOS, Windows, Linux and Android that stay in step with each other.
- End-to-end encryption done properly.
- Sharing with other people, which means accounts and invitations.

What this rests on. Peergos's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
