Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

1.4

GPA, above 0 of the 45 other resume builders we grade

ResumeGo is a paid resume writing service, not a self-serve builder. After an intake form, a writer is assigned, drafts the resume and revises it with the customer. Packages are priced per order, with LinkedIn, cover letter and thank-you letter writing sold as add-ons.

To get you started, here are 8 things to know about ResumeGo, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for having a person write your resume

ResumeGo is a paid writing service, not a builder: a writer is assigned after an intake form and revises until you're happy.

4 Assigned resume writer

Each paid package includes a consultation with the writer, and a free 15-minute call is offered before buying.

6 Unlimited revisions

The writer keeps revising the resume until the customer is satisfied, according to the how-it-works page.

The report card

Best for having a person write your resume

ResumeGo is a paid writing service, not a builder: a writer is assigned after an intake form and revises until you're happy. That is a different job from the apps around it, and it costs $360 for one resume. If you want to build your own resume or pay monthly, this isn't that.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD	ResumeGo	Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	D	$360 once for Professional and $600 for Executive. A year of the category's middle subscription is about $173, so this costs more than two years of it. A human writer is the reason, and it still lands in the dearest tenth.
Free plan and trial	F	No free plan and no trial. A free 15-minute call and a 14-day refund window are not a trial.
Features	C	It does its one job fully: a writer, a consultation and unlimited revisions. LinkedIn, cover letter and thank-you letter writing are add-ons on Professional.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. You fill in an intake form and a writer takes it from there, so there is little to learn and a wait for the draft.
Platforms and integrations	C	Web only, nothing to connect to, and no app is listed.
Grade point average		Weak, out of 4.0 1.4

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who ResumeGo is for

- ✓ Fits if you want someone else to write the resume and you're happy to pay once
- ✓ Makes sense if you're a senior executive who wants a resume, LinkedIn profile and letters as a set

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you want to build and edit the resume yourself, since this is a service with human writers
- ✗ Pricey if you only need one resume: $360 on Professional, $600 on Executive
- ✗ Watch out: LinkedIn is +$80 and a cover letter or thank-you letter is +$40 each on Professional
- ✗ Watch out: the order page gives no delivery time beyond a writer being assigned within 24 hours, and refunds close 14 days after delivery

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ People who want a person to write the resume for them
- ✓ Executives who want a resume, LinkedIn profile and letters in one package
- ✓ Buyers who prefer paying once instead of subscribing

Worth knowing

- ⓘ This is a writing service with human writers, not software for building a resume yourself.
- ⓘ Packages cost $360 and $600; the order page does not describe delivery time beyond writer assignment within 24 hours.
- ⓘ LinkedIn, cover letter and thank-you letter writing are add-ons on the Professional package.
- ⓘ The refund window is 14 days from receiving the resume.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

0/45

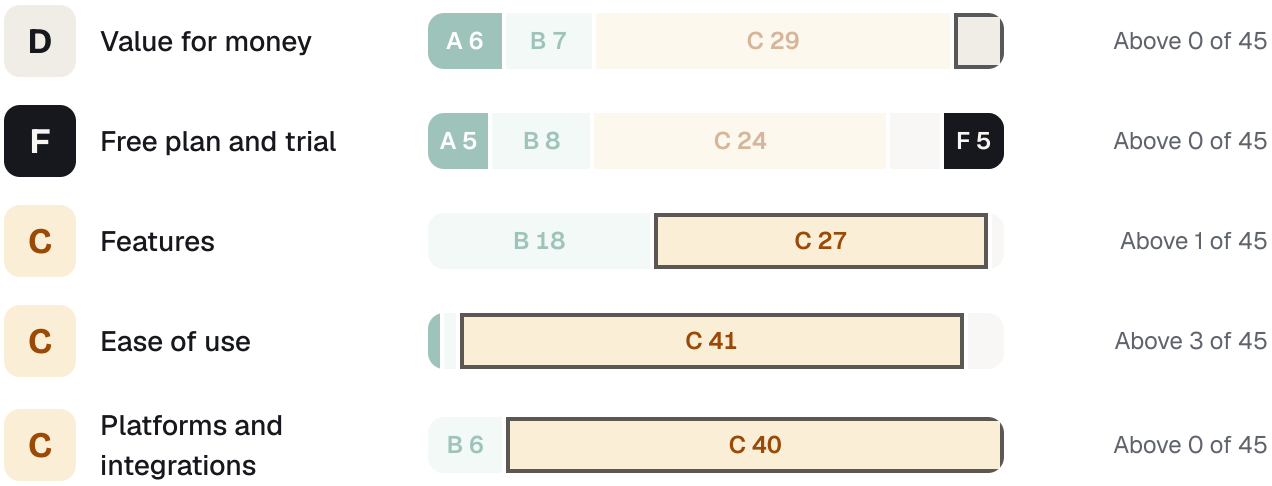

Other resume builders it is graded above

ResumeGo's GPA of 1.4 is higher than 0 of the 45 other resume builders we grade, and level with 1.

It stands best on ease of use (C, above 3 of 45) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 46 resume builders we grade, cut by the letter each got. ResumeGo's own letter is outlined.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Your call

You could make the core of ResumeGo for yourself: resume builder and documents.

Whether that is worth the price is your call. At $360, paid once, it costs less than the weekend it would take to replace, which is the argument for keeping it.

What you could make

- Resume builder and documents: an app builder makes these well.
- It runs in a browser, which is where something home-made would run too.

What this rests on. ResumeGo's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
