Who Retouch4me is for

- ✓ Fits if you retouch portraits in Photoshop and want a plugin to do the repetitive work
- ✓ Works for studios that want a perpetual licence with local processing

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you want month-to-month plans: Start, Pro and Business are billed yearly
- ✗ Watch out: unused credits are forfeited, without a refund, if you cancel
- ✗ Tight if you're staying free, with just two free plugins
- ✗ Watch out: the $20, $35 and $90 monthly prices may be the standard rate, since yearly plans carry a Limited Offer label
- ✗ Not for you if you have an older computer: the vendor recommends a powerful one for local processing

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Portrait, wedding and event photographers retouching in Photoshop
- ✓ Studios that want to buy plugins once rather than subscribe
- ✓ Retouchers who want automatic culling before editing

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Subscriptions are billed yearly on Start, Pro and Business; unused credits are forfeited without refund when a subscription is canceled.
- ⓘ Perpetual plugins run locally without internet but the vendor recommends a powerful computer.
- ⓘ The yearly plans carry a Limited Offer label, so the monthly-billed $20, $35 and $90 may be the standard rate.
- ⓘ Generative credits are listed on each plan, but the page says generative features are still to come in Apex.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Retouch4me you would be making a video editor. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

It costs $168.96 a year.

What you could not

- A video editor.
- A real app for macOS and Windows. Something home-made would be a web page.
- It plugs into other products, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Lightroom and Capture One among them.

- ✕ AI features, unless you pay a model provider for each request yourself.

What this rests on. Retouch4me's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
