Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

1.4

GPA, above 0 of the 114 other calendar and scheduling apps we grade

Skylight Calendar is a touchscreen display that shows a family's synced calendars, chores, routines and lists. It is sold as hardware, with a free mobile app and an optional yearly Calendar Plus subscription that adds meal planning, a photo screensaver, rewards and email import.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Skylight Calendar, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for a family calendar screen for the kitchen

Skylight Calendar is a 15-inch family calendar screen at $299.99, with basic features that work without a subscription.

2 What it costs

Paid plans start at $299.99 one-time for Calendar 2; optional Calendar Plus $79 per year.

3 There is a free plan

The device's basic features work without a subscription: calendar sync, color coding, task manager, custom lists and day, week and month views.

4 It runs on 2 platforms

iOS and Android.

5 Synced family calendar

Pulls in Google, Outlook, Apple, Cozi and Yahoo calendars, with a color for each family member and day, week, month and schedule views.

6 Tasks manager

Interactive checklists for kids' routines and chores, included without a subscription.

7 Custom lists

Task, to-do and grocery lists usable on the device or in the free mobile app.

8 A 1.4 GPA, above 0 of 114

That is against the other calendar and scheduling apps we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

The plain part of Skylight Calendar you could make: calendar, tasks and habit tracking. What surrounds it you could not. The 3 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

0/114

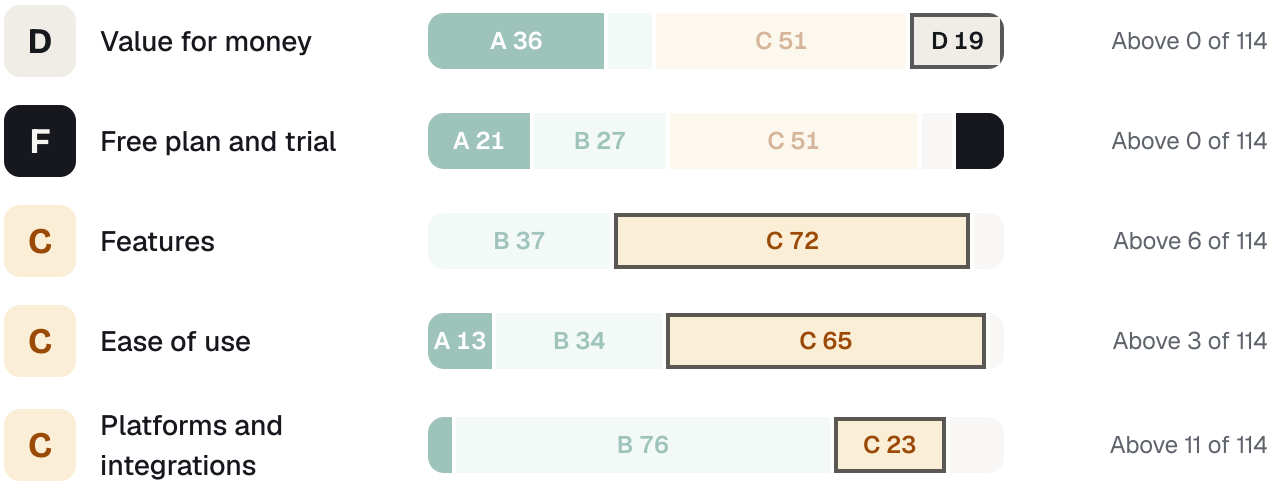

Other calendar and scheduling apps it is graded above

Skylight Calendar's GPA of 1.4 is higher than 0 of the 114 other calendar and scheduling apps we grade, and level with 1.

It stands best on platforms and integrations (C, above 11 of 114) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 115 calendar and scheduling apps we grade, cut by the letter each got. Skylight Calendar's own letter is outlined.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

The plain part of Skylight Calendar you could make: calendar, tasks and habit tracking. What surrounds it you could not. The 3 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 113 of the 114 other calendar and scheduling apps grade higher. It costs $299.99, paid once.

What you could make

- Calendar, tasks and habit tracking: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- A real app for iOS and Android. Something home-made would be a web page.
- It plugs into other products, Google Calendar, Outlook and Apple Calendar among them.
- AI features, unless you pay a model provider for each request yourself.

What this rests on. Skylight Calendar's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
