Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.4

GPA, above 57 of the 72 other inventory management tools we grade

Teapplix sells ActionShip, a web service that downloads orders from selling channels, prints shipping labels in batches and keeps stock counts in step across channels and warehouses. Shipping, inventory, listing uploads and QuickBooks sync are priced as separate features by monthly order volume.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Teapplix, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> Connect each channel, carrier and warehouse before it is useful.
> From our grade for ease of use

1 Best for shipping and stock sync for online sellers

Shipping, inventory, listings and QuickBooks are priced as separate features, so the real total depends on what you switch on.

2 Paid plans start at $10 a month

As its pricing page puts it: $10 per month for up to 50 orders (shipping); inventory from $15 per month.

3 You can try it first

30-day free trial, plus a 90-day money-back guarantee

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Multichannel inventory

Tracks quantity changes against live orders and updates selling channels every 15 minutes.

6 Multiple warehouses

Warehouses can be internal, external or Amazon FBA, and each product can belong to one or several.

7 Kits and multi-packs

Inventory for kit products and multi-packs is calculated from their component products.

8 A 2.4 GPA, above 57 of 72

That is against the other inventory management tools we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

To replace Teapplix you would be making discounted carrier rates and labels, which take an agreement with each carrier. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

The report card

Best for shipping and stock sync for online sellers

Teapplix sells ActionShip, which pulls in orders, prints labels in batches and keeps stock in step across channels, from $10 a month for 50 orders. Shipping, inventory, listings and QuickBooks are priced as separate features, so the real total depends on what you switch on.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD — Teapplix — Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	B	$10 a month for shipping and $15 for inventory, both at 50 orders, are under 60% of this category's $49 cheaper-quarter start. Features are priced separately and the price climbs with order volume.
Free plan and trial	C	A 30-day free trial and a 90-day money-back guarantee. No free plan.
Features	C	Multichannel stock, warehouses, kits, alerts, batch shipping and a QuickBooks link. Each of those is billed as its own feature, and EDI orders carry an extra fee of about $0.18 each.
Ease of use	C	Connect each channel, carrier and warehouse before it is useful. No store rating is on record.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web only, with QuickBooks, Amazon, Walmart and Google links and a REST API.

Grade point average — Fair, out of 4.0 2.4

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Teapplix is for

- ✓ Fits if you sell on several marketplaces and ship in batches
- ✓ Works for small sellers whose order count is a few hundred a month

Who it is not for

- ✕ Watch out: shipping, inventory, listings and QuickBooks are billed separately, so the total depends on what you turn on
- ✕ Watch out: the home page says plans start at $20 while the pricing page lists $10 for shipping alone
- ✕ Pricey if you take EDI orders, which add about $0.18 each
- ✕ Tight if you pass 7,500 orders a month, since that moves to sales pricing

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Marketplace sellers who ship many small orders a day
- ✓ Sellers who keep their books in QuickBooks
- ✓ Teams that spread stock across their own space, suppliers and Amazon FBA

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Shipping, inventory, listings and QuickBooks are priced separately, so the total depends on the features switched on and monthly orders.
- ⓘ The home page says plans start at $20 a month while the pricing page lists $10 for shipping alone; the pricing page is used here.
- ⓘ Orders from EDI trading partners such as big-box retailers carry an extra fee of about $0.18 each.
- ⓘ Accounts above 7,500 orders a month, and API accounts with high volume, are priced through sales.

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

57 /72

Other inventory management tools it is graded above

Teapplix's GPA of 2.4 is higher than 57 of the 72 other inventory management tools we grade, and level with 7.

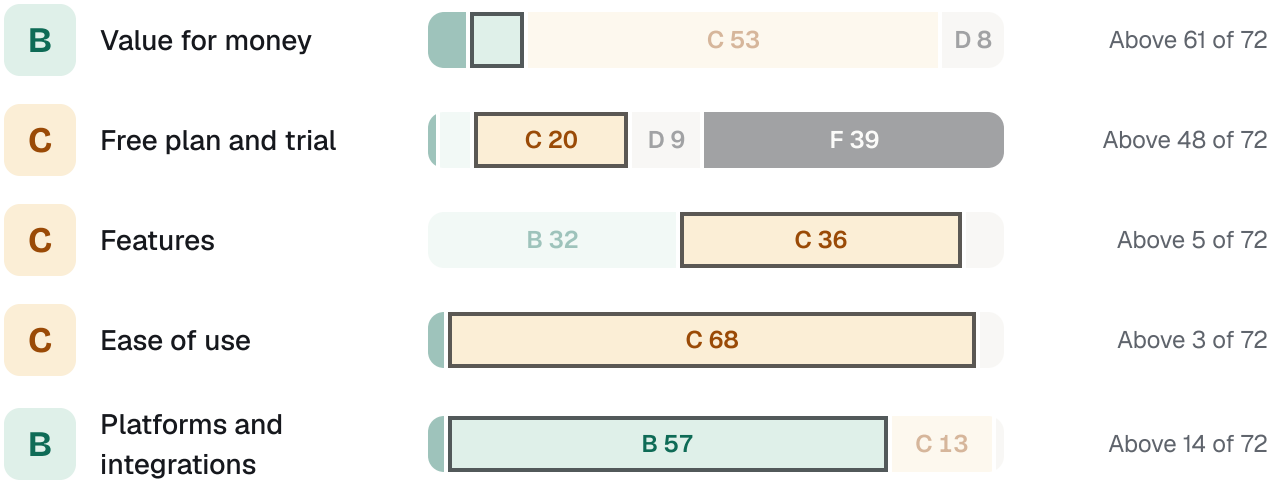

It stands best on value for money (B, above 61 of 72) and worst on ease of use (C, above 3).

Its paid plans start at $10 a month, against a middle price of $91 for the category: 3 of the 42 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. Nothing scores higher for less, though at least one tool matches that score at a lower price.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Teapplix you would be making discounted carrier rates and labels, which take an agreement with each carrier. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

It is one of the better ones too: its GPA of 2.4 is higher than 57 of the 72 other inventory management tools we grade. It costs $120 a year.

What you could make

- Inventory and reports: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- Discounted carrier rates and labels, which take an agreement with each carrier.
- Data from Amazon's seller tools and years of sales estimates.
- Connections to other products, each kept working as those products change.

What this rests on. Teapplix's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
