Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.4

GPA, above 41 of the 98 other time tracking apps we grade

Timesheets.com is a cloud time tracking service for tracking employee hours, billable project time, time off, scheduling, mileage and expenses. It runs in a browser on desktop and mobile, with a kiosk mode for a shared device. It charges a flat rate per active user with no base fee.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Timesheets.com, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> No store rating on record, and you set up jobs, rates, approvals and payroll exports before it fits your business.
>
> From our grade for ease of use

1 Best for browser-based payroll timesheets

Timesheets.com is a browser timesheet and time clock at $5.50 a user a month, with a free account for one person tracking their own hours.

2 Paid plans start at $5.50 a month for each person

As its pricing page puts it: $5.50 per user / month.

3 There is a free plan

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Time tracking for payroll

Clock in and out with GPS, photo and IP lockdown options, with signatures, approvals, a complete audit trail and payroll exports.

6 Billable time and job costing

Track time by customer, project and task with custom bill and cost rates, and run job costing reports.

7 Time off and scheduling

Time off and PTO with accruals, plus employee scheduling and email or text notifications.

8 A 2.4 GPA, above 41 of 98

That is against the other time tracking apps we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

Best for browser-based payroll timesheets

Timesheets.com is a browser timesheet and time clock at $5.50 a user a month, with a free account for one person tracking their own hours. There's no phone app, though, photo punches cost $1 more a user, and the free account can't track anyone else.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD — Timesheets.com — Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	C	$5.50 a user a month with no base fee, between the cheaper quarter ($4.50) and the middle ($6.99) of time trackers. Nonprofits pay $4.40.
Free plan and trial	B	A Freelancer account is free for one person tracking only their own time and expenses. You can live on it, but it can't track other workers.
Features	B	Punches with GPS, jobs and rates, time off, scheduling, expenses and mileage, payroll exports. Photo Timestamp is the one add-on, at $1 a user.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record, and you set up jobs, rates, approvals and payroll exports before it fits your business.
Platforms and integrations	C	It runs in the browser only. The vendor says no app is needed and mentions no iOS or Android app. QuickBooks and Gusto connect.

Grade point average — Fair, out of 4.0 2.4

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Timesheets.com is for

- ✓ Fits if you run a small team and need clock-ins that go straight to payroll
- ✓ Works for freelancers who only need to log their own hours and expenses for free

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you want a native iPhone or Android app, since it's a mobile website
- ✗ Pricey if you want photo punches, which add $1 a user on top of $5.50
- ✗ Not for you if you want a free plan for a team, because the free account can't track other workers
- ✗ Watch out: monthly customers can't pay by check, and the pricing page also shows a $7.50 Freelancer price next to the $0 one

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Small US businesses that want per-user pricing with no base fee
- ✓ Seasonal businesses that pay only for the months and people they need
- ✓ Freelancers tracking their own time and expenses

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Photo Timestamp, which saves a photo at each punch, is an extra $1 per user per month.
- ⓘ It is browser-based; the vendor says no app is required, and no native iOS or Android app is mentioned.
- ⓘ Freelancer accounts cannot track other workers.
- ⓘ Monthly-plan customers cannot pay by check; annual customers can.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

41/98

Other time tracking apps it is graded above

Timesheets.com's GPA of 2.4 is higher than 41 of the 98 other time tracking apps we grade, and level with 24.

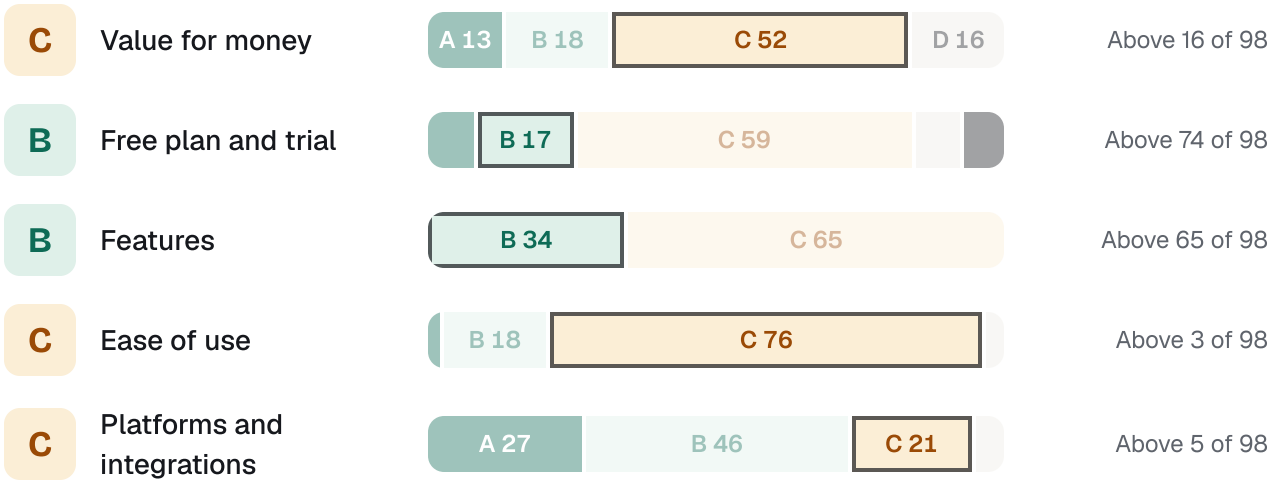

It stands best on free plan and trial (B, above 74 of 98) and worst on ease of use (C, above 3).

Its paid plans start at $5.50 a month for each person, against a middle price of $6.99 for the category: 31 of the 80 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 18 tools score higher and cost less.

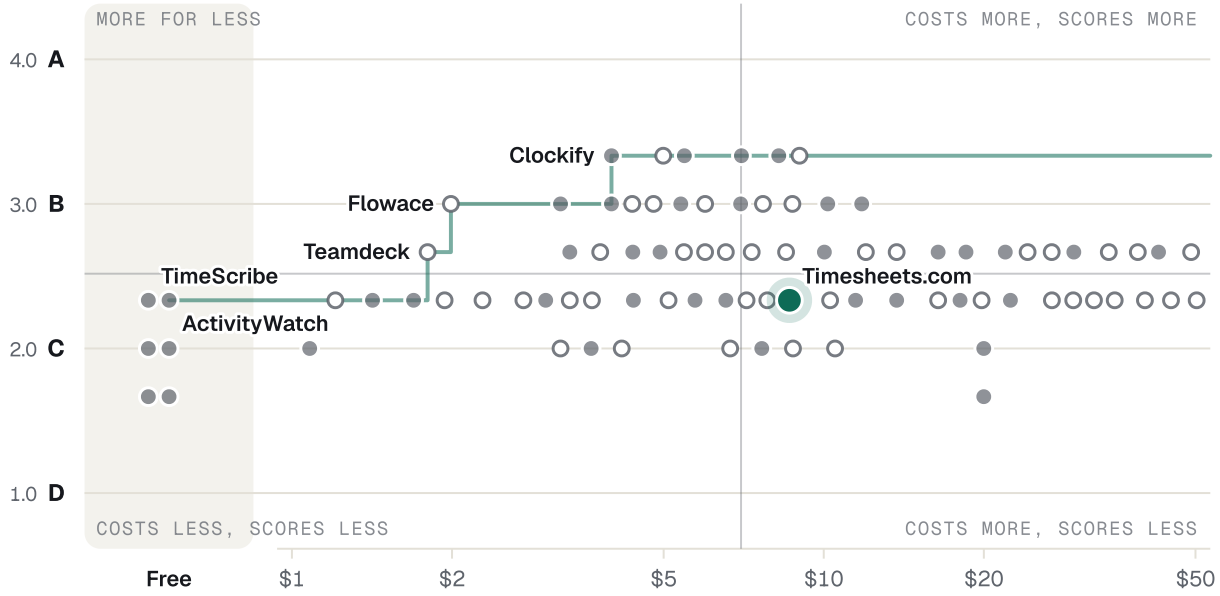

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 99 time tracking apps we grade, cut by the letter each got. Timesheets.com's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 87 time tracking apps. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Timesheets.com is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

The plain part of Timesheets.com you could make: time tracking, time off, expense tracking and reports. What surrounds it you could not. The 5 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

It costs $66 a year.

What you could make

- Time tracking, time off, expense tracking and reports: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- Clocking in from a phone, checked against where and when.

- A rota the whole staff sees on their phones, with swaps and alerts.
- It is priced for each person, which means accounts and billing for a team.
- It plugs into other products, QuickBooks and Gusto among them, and has an API.
- The depth: we grade its features B, which means it covers the whole job.

What this rests on. Timesheets.com's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
