Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.6

GPA, above 44 of the 58 other website and product analytics tools we grade

Tinylytics is a privacy-focused web analytics service hosted in Europe. Besides cookie-free visitor counts it includes uptime and SSL monitoring, click and download events, a daily crawl for broken links, weekly email reports and public stats pages. Every paid plan has unlimited hits and history.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Tinylytics, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for small-site stats with uptime checks

There's no free plan, SEO audits and teams are Ultra only, and the site has no separate pricing page.

2 Paid plans start at $7 a month

As its pricing page puts it: $7 per month for up to 2 sites, billed monthly ($70 billed yearly).

3 You can try it first

14 days free with every feature included, no credit card

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Cookie-free analytics

Counts visits, not people: no cookies, fingerprinting or cross-site tracking. Unique hits use rotating salts, and data is hosted in Europe.

6 Uptime and SSL monitoring

Checks a site from several regions every 10 minutes and emails when it goes down, returns or has a certificate problem. Ultra can check as often as every minute.

7 Content checks

Crawls pages on a schedule to flag broken links and mixed content. Ultra can add AI spell checking of visible page text.

8 A 2.6 GPA, above 44 of 58

That is against the other website and product analytics tools we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

The plain part of Tinylytics you could make: reports. What surrounds it you could not. The 4 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

Best for small-site stats with uptime checks

Tinylytics gives cookie-free stats plus uptime and SSL monitoring from $7 a month for 2 sites. There's no free plan, SEO audits and teams are Ultra only, and the site has no separate pricing page.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD

Tinylytics

Graded Nov 12, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	A	$7 a month for up to 2 sites when billed monthly, under 60% of the analytics cheaper quarter of $16.58. Ultra is $29 for 50 sites.
Free plan and trial	C	14 days free with every feature and no card. No free plan after that.
Features	C	Cookie-free analytics, uptime and SSL monitoring, content checks, events, public stats, webhooks and an API. SEO audits, teams and alerts are Ultra only.
Ease of use	B	No store rating on record. You paste in a script and there's little else to set up.
Platforms and integrations	C	Web only, with webhooks and an API but no integrations listed.

Grade point average — Good, out of 4.0 2.6

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Tinylytics is for

- ✓ Fits if you run a couple of small sites and want stats and uptime checks cheaply
- ✓ Works for a hobbyist who wants a public stats page

Who it is not for

- ✗ Skip it if you want a free plan, as only the 14-day trial is free
- ✗ Too light for SEO audits, team access or spike alerts on Zen, which are Ultra at $29
- ✗ Tight if a site passes 1 million hits a month, since fair-usage terms apply and the vendor may contact you
- ✗ Watch out: pricing is read from the homepage, as there's no pricing page

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Personal sites and small publishers who want analytics, uptime and link checks in one place
- ✓ People who prefer predictable site-count pricing over per-hit billing

Worth knowing

- ⓘ There is no free plan; only the 14-day trial is free.
- ⓘ Fair-usage terms apply above 1 million hits a month, and the vendor may contact heavy sites.
- ⓘ SEO audits, team access, site groups, spike alerts and password-protected public stats are Ultra only.
- ⓘ Pricing is read from the homepage; the site has no separate pricing page.

44/58

Other website and product analytics tools it is graded above

Tinylytics's GPA of 2.6 is higher than 44 of the 58 other website and product analytics tools we grade, and level with 4.

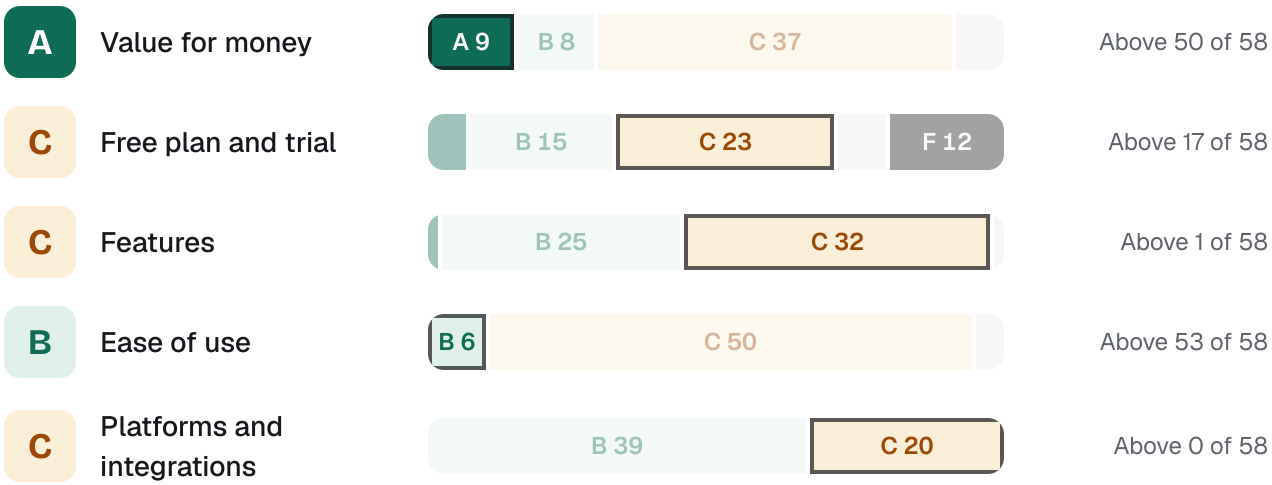

It stands best on value for money (A, above 50 of 58) and worst on platforms and integrations (C, above 0).

Its paid plans start at $7 a month, against a middle price of $29 for the category: 3 of the 32 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 3 tools score higher and cost less.

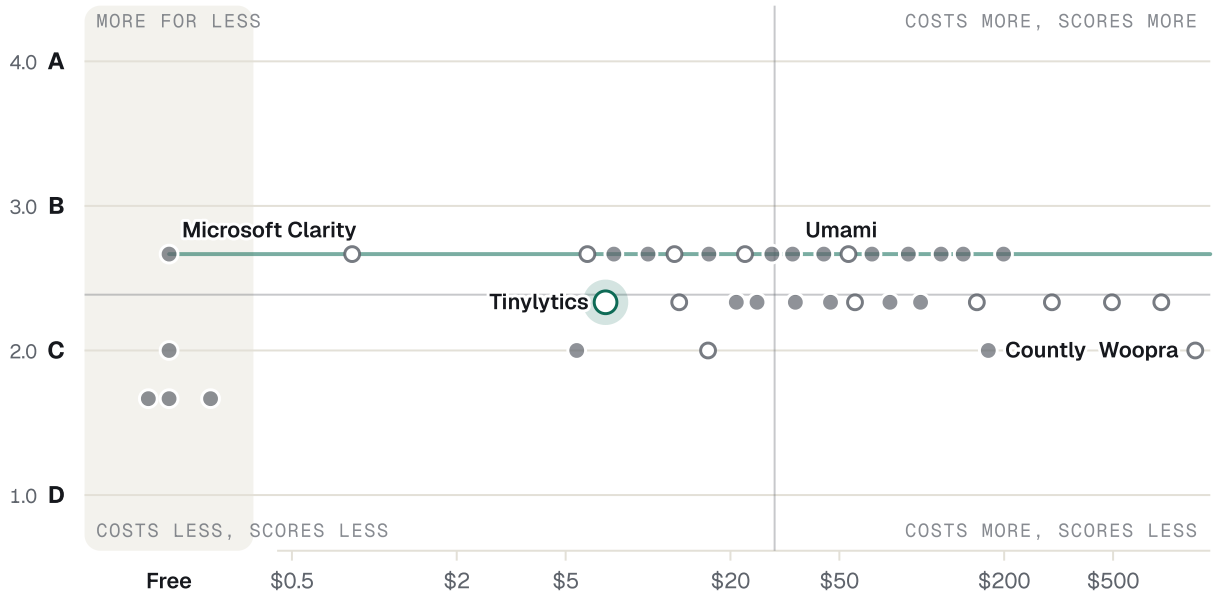

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 59 website and product analytics tools we grade, cut by the letter each got. Tinylytics's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 38 website and product analytics tools. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Tinylytics is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

The plain part of Tinylytics you could make: reports. What surrounds it you could not. The 4 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

It is one of the better ones too: its GPA of 2.6 is higher than 44 of the 58 other website and product analytics tools we grade. It costs $84 a year.

What you could make

- Reports: an app builder makes this well.

What you could not

- A tracking script and a database that counts every visit.

- Connections that pull numbers from dozens of other services.
- An API that other software can build on.
- AI features, unless you pay a model provider for each request yourself.

What this rests on. Tinylytics's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
