Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.0

GPA, above 15 of the 72 other AI voice generators we grade

Verbalate translates and dubs video into other languages. Its translator offers voice cloning from about a minute of audio, optional lip sync and multi-language audio tracks, and it also makes subtitles. Plans are sold by minutes of translation, with a free try that the site says needs no credit card.

> Check the minute count against your videos before you pay.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Verbalate, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for translating and dubbing short videos

Verbalate translates a video into other languages with a cloned voice and optional lip sync, sold by the minute.

2 Paid plans start at $9 a month

As its pricing page puts it: $9 per month for 10 minutes of translation.

3 You can try it first

Free try with no credit card needed; the allowance is not stated.

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Video translation

Translates video audio into more than two dozen languages listed on the site, including Hindi, Japanese and Arabic.

6 Voice cloning

Clones a speaker from about a minute of audio, which the site says covers 29 languages and over 50 accents.

7 Lip sync

Optionally matches on-screen mouth movement to the translated audio.

8 A 2.0 GPA, above 15 of 72

That is against the other AI voice generators we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

To replace Verbalate you would be making a voice model trained on your recordings. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

The report card

Best for translating and dubbing short videos

Verbalate translates a video into other languages with a cloned voice and optional lip sync, sold by the minute. $9 a month buys 10 minutes, the free try doesn't say how much it allows, and the API is on the custom Enterprise plan only. Check the minute count against your videos before you pay.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD — Verbalate — Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	C	$9 a month for 10 minutes, then $1 a minute extra. $49 buys 60 minutes. That is the middle of what voice tools charge, but a 10-minute allowance goes fast on video.
Free plan and trial	C	A free try with no credit card, which is a trial rather than a plan. The listing doesn't say how many minutes it gives.
Features	C	Translation in more than two dozen languages, voice cloning from about a minute of audio, lip sync and subtitles. Avatars need the $49 plan and the API needs Enterprise.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. You upload a video and pick languages, though the clone and lip sync add choices.
Platforms and integrations	C	Web only. The API sits on the Enterprise plan and no integrations are listed.
Grade point average		Fair, out of 4.0 2.0

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Verbalate is for

- ✓ Fits if you make course videos or YouTube clips and want them in a few more languages
- ✓ Works for small teams happy to buy translation by the minute

Who it is not for

- ✗ Tight if you have long videos: $9 a month covers only 10 minutes
- ✗ Skip it if you need an API, as that is Enterprise and quoted on request
- ✗ Not for you if you want avatars: multilingual avatars start on the $49 plan
- ✗ Watch out: the free try doesn't say how many minutes you get
- ✗ Watch out: the pricing page lists 10 minutes for Translator in one block and 60 in a repeated block, so check before paying

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Course creators and YouTubers reaching audiences in other languages
- ✓ Small teams buying translation by the minute

Worth knowing

- ⓘ The pricing page lists 10 minutes on the monthly Translator plan in one block and 60 in a repeated block; 10 is recorded.
- ⓘ API access is only on the Enterprise plan.
- ⓘ The yearly plans are advertised as 2 months free.
- ⓘ Free-trial minutes are not stated on the pages read.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

15/72

Other AI voice generators it is graded above

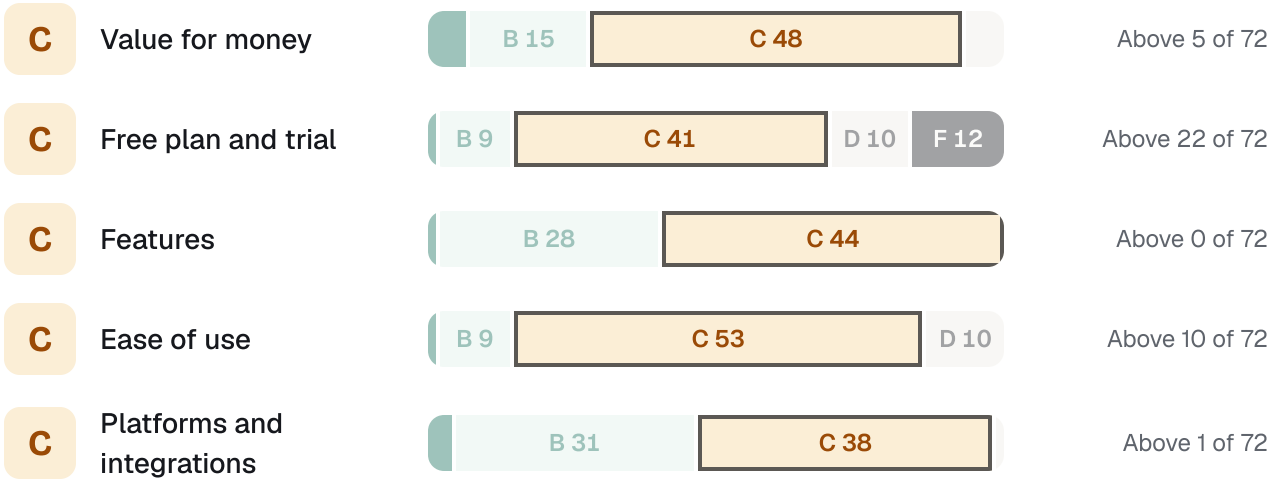

Verbalate's GPA of 2.0 is higher than 15 of the 72 other AI voice generators we grade, and level with 14.

Its paid plans start at $9 a month, against a middle price of $9.99 for the category: 20 of the 50 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.0 out of 4. 18 tools score higher and cost less.

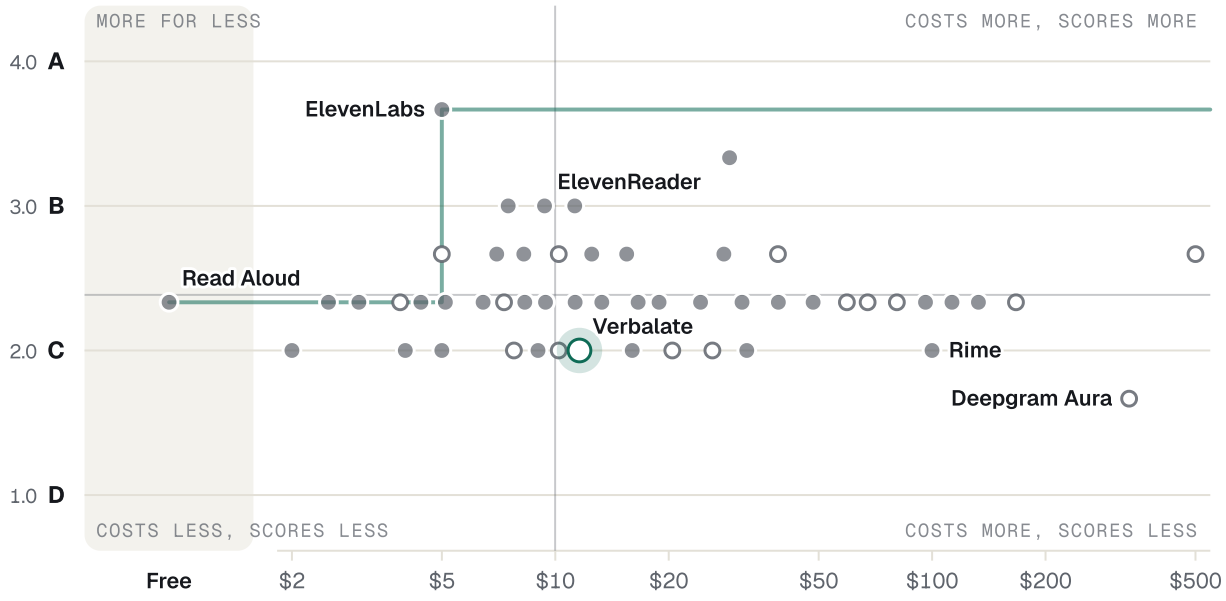

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 73 AI voice generators we grade, cut by the letter each got. Verbalate's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 52 AI voice generators. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Verbalate is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Verbalate you would be making a voice model trained on your recordings. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 43 of the 72 other AI voice generators grade higher. It costs $108 a year.

What you could not

- ✕ A voice model trained on your recordings.
- ✕ Speech turned into text you can trust.

- ✕ AI features, unless you pay a model provider for each request yourself.

What this rests on. Verbalate's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
