Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.4

GPA, above 46 of the 114 other calendar and scheduling apps we grade

Vyte is a scheduling tool with a personal booking page, appointment types and group meetings where invitees vote on times. It syncs with Google and Office 365 calendars on the free plan, and the Pro plan adds team scheduling, payments, branding and API access. It describes itself as a European alternative to US scheduling software.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Vyte, taken from its own pages and our grades.

1 Best for a scheduling page for meetings

The free plan syncs one calendar, and teams, paid appointments, branding and the API need Pro.

2 Paid plans start at $8 a month for each person

As its pricing page puts it: $8 per user / month, billed yearly ($10 billed monthly).

3 There is a free plan

Personal Vyte page, Google Calendar and Office 365 sync, 1-on-1 and group meetings, double booking prevention.

4 It runs on 2 platforms

Web and iOS.

5 Booking page

Share a personal page showing your availability, with double booking prevention and timezone handling.

6 Group meetings

Plan meetings with several people on the free plan. Pro adds controls such as hiding invitees from one another.

7 Appointment types

Pro offers multiple appointment types with their own availability, private types, and paid appointments through Stripe.

8 A 2.4 GPA, above 46 of 114

That is against the other calendar and scheduling apps we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

To replace Vyte you would be making connections to other products, each kept working as those products change. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

Who Vyte is for

- ✓ Fits if you want a free meeting-booking link tied to Google or Office 365
- ✓ Works for small teams on Pro at $8 a seat

Who it is not for

- ✗ Tight if you stay free, as it syncs one calendar only
- ✗ Pricey if you want paid appointments, teams or the API, which are Pro at $8 a user
- ✗ Skip it if you use Android, as no Android app is named
- ✗ Watch out: white label and custom domain are listed only under custom plans
- ✗ Watch out: iCloud, Exchange and CalDAV sync need Pro

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Individuals who want a free scheduling link
- ✓ Small teams that need shared booking and group polls
- ✓ Software teams embedding scheduling through an API

Worth knowing

- ⓘ The free plan syncs one calendar; multiple calendars, Exchange, iCloud and CalDAV sync need Pro.
- ⓘ Paid appointments, teams, custom branding and API access are Pro features.
- ⓘ Full white label and a custom domain URL are listed only under custom plans.
- ⓘ Apps listed are the web and an iOS app; no Android app is named.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

46/114

Other calendar and scheduling apps it is graded above

Vyte's GPA of 2.4 is higher than 46 of the 114 other calendar and scheduling apps we grade, and level with 15.

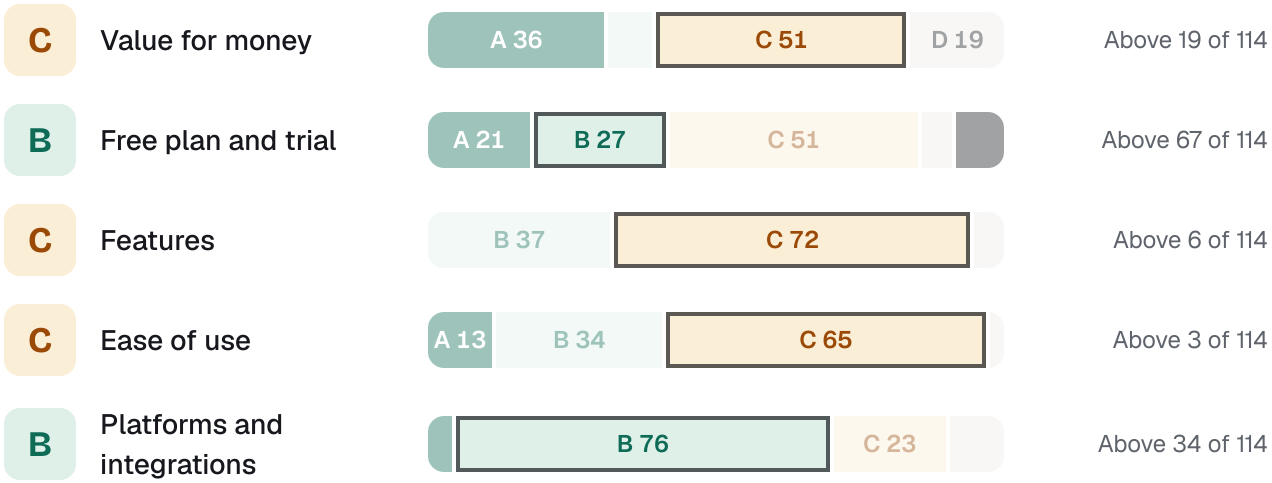

It stands best on free plan and trial (B, above 67 of 114) and worst on ease of use (C, above 3).

Its paid plans start at $8 a month for each person, against a middle price of $8.13 for the category: 41 of the 85 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 27 tools score higher and cost less.

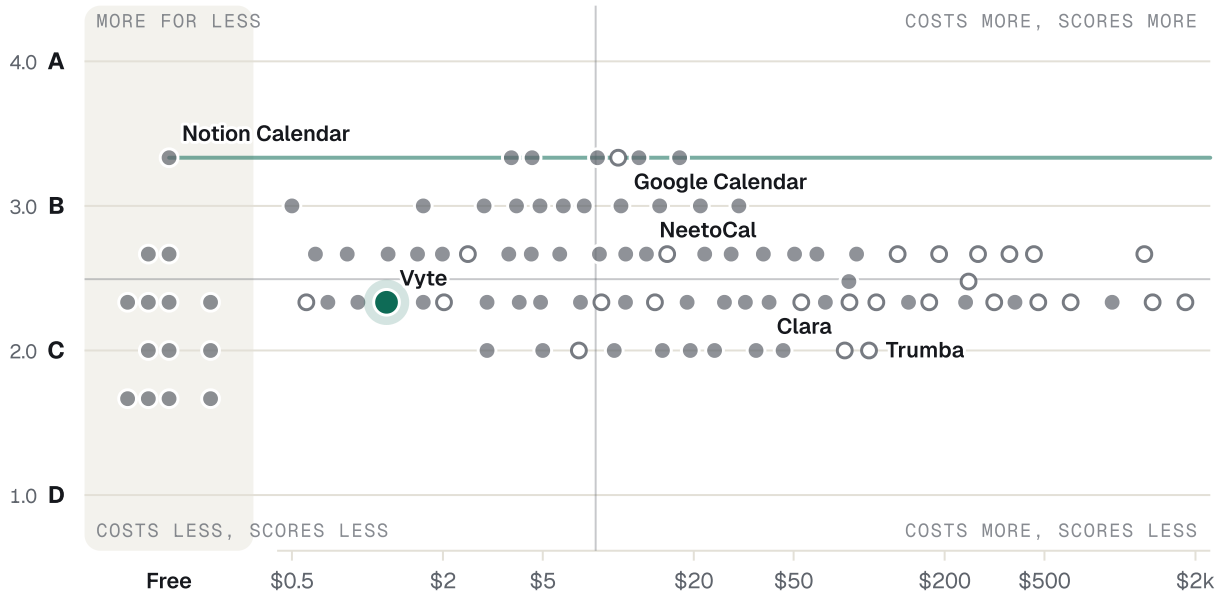

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 115 calendar and scheduling apps we grade, cut by the letter each got. Vyte's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 100 calendar and scheduling apps. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Vyte is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Vyte you would be making connections to other products, each kept working as those products change. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

It costs $96 a year.

What you could make

- Appointment booking and calendar: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- Connections to other products, each kept working as those products change.

- Booking pages that read and write other people's calendars and send the emails.
- A real app for iOS. Something home-made would be a web page.
- It is priced for each person, which means accounts and billing for a team.

What this rests on. Vyte's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
