Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.0

GPA, above 14 of the 133 other screen recording and video tools we grade

Wave.video combines a browser video editor with stock media, video hosting with embeds, and live streaming to several channels. A free plan covers basic editing and streaming with a watermark. Paid plans lift length, resolution, guest and channel limits, and larger plans add hosting and marketing tools.

To get you started, here are 9 things to know about Wave.video, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> A web app where you build each video yourself.
>
> From our grade for ease of use

1 Best for video, live streaming and hosting in one place

Wave.video combines a video editor, stock library, live streaming and video hosting from $16 a month on yearly billing.

2 Paid plans start at $16 a month

As its pricing page puts it: $16 per month, billed annually ($20 billed monthly).

3 There is a free plan

Basic editor and live streaming with a watermark, 5 hosted-video embeds, 10 GB storage.

4 It runs on Web

Web.

5 Video editor

Browser editor with templates, layouts, an advanced text editor and a thumbnail maker; editing length and resolution rise by plan.

6 Stock library

Plans include a stock library of clips, images and soundtracks; the page cites 2M assets on lower plans and 200M on higher ones.

7 Live streaming

Streams to several channels with guests, scenes, shared presentations and pre-recorded video streaming on paid plans.

8 A 2.0 GPA, above 14 of 133

That is against the other screen recording and video tools we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

9 Keep it

To replace Wave.video you would be making a video editor. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

Best for video, live streaming and hosting in one place

Wave.video combines a video editor, stock library, live streaming and video hosting from $16 a month on yearly billing. The free plan puts a watermark on exports, and the FAQ says MP4 downloads need a paid plan.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD Wave.video Graded Nov 12, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	C	Streamer is $16 a month on yearly billing ($20 monthly), above the category's middle of $12.99. Business is $48.
Free plan and trial	C	A free plan with a basic editor, live streaming with a watermark, 5 hosted embeds and 10 GB of storage. Downloading MP4s needs a paid plan.
Features	C	Editor, stock library, streaming, hosting, captions and webinars, but teams share one login and the pages disagree about Business storage.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. A web app where you build each video yourself.
Platforms and integrations	C	Web only. No integrations are listed in the pages read.

Grade point average Fair, out of 4.0 2.0

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Wave.video is for

- ✓ Fits if you want editing, live streaming and video hosting under one login
- ✓ Works for people who'll test the editor on the free plan first

Who it is not for

- ✕ Tight if you stay free: watermarked exports and the FAQ says MP4 downloads need a paid plan
- ✕ Skip it if you need separate team logins, as the FAQ describes shared credentials
- ✕ Watch out: extra hosted embeds on Business cost 20 cents each a month past 200
- ✕ Watch out: captioning past 200 minutes costs 5 cents a minute, and the pages disagree on Business storage (500 GB or 200 GB)
- ✕ Not for you if you want a desktop or phone app, as it's web only

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Marketers who want editing, hosting and streaming in one account
- ✓ Small teams sharing one login across social video work
- ✓ Agencies managing several clients' brand settings

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Free exports carry a Wave.video watermark; the FAQ says downloading MP4 files needs a paid plan.
- ⓘ Teams share a login; the FAQ describes multiple user logins as shared credentials.
- ⓘ Extra hosted embeds on Business cost 20 cents each a month past 200, and captioning past 200 minutes costs 5 cents a minute.
- ⓘ Pages disagree on Business storage (500 GB in the plan table, 200 GB in the FAQ).

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

14/133

Other screen recording and video tools it is graded above

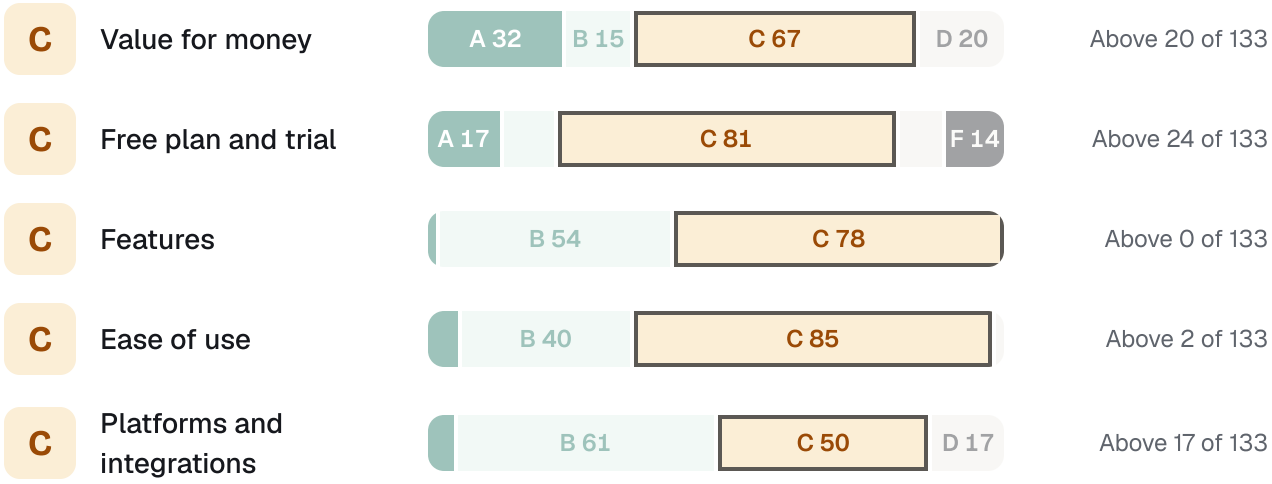

Wave.video's GPA of 2.0 is higher than 14 of the 133 other screen recording and video tools we grade, and level with 27.

Its paid plans start at $16 a month, against a middle price of $12.25 for the category: 56 of the 88 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.0 out of 4. 51 tools score higher and cost less.

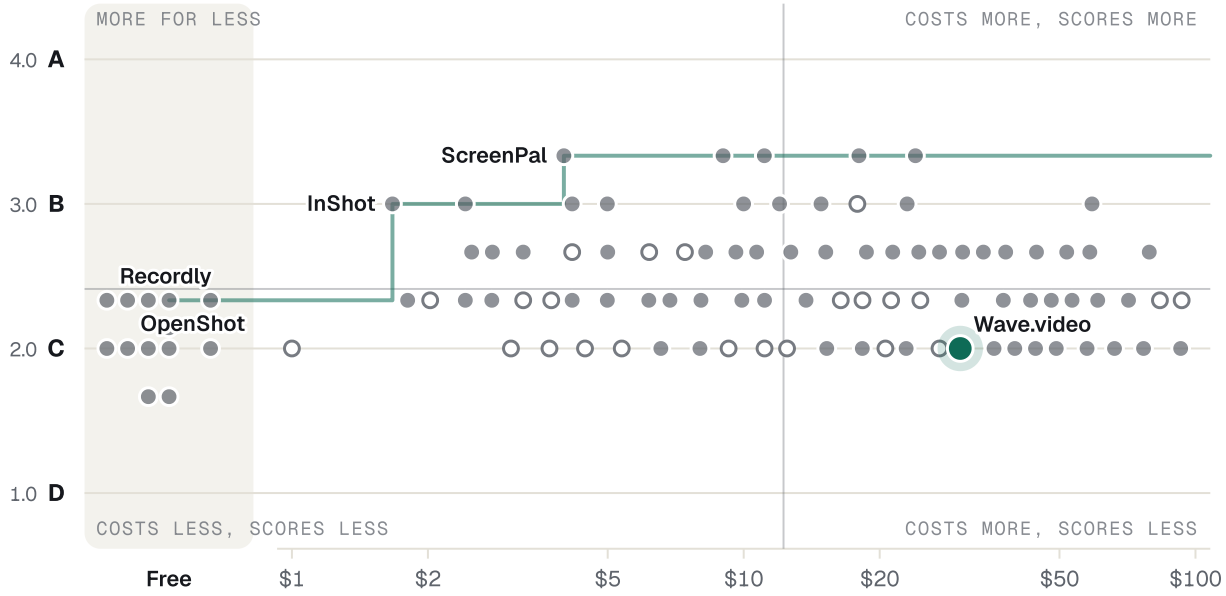

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 134 screen recording and video tools we grade, cut by the letter each got. Wave.video's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 102 screen recording and video tools. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Wave.video is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Wave.video you would be making a video editor. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 92 of the 133 other screen recording and video tools grade higher. It costs $192 a year.

What you could make

- Templates: an app builder makes this well.

What you could not

- A video editor.
- One live stream sent to several platforms at once.

- ✕ Live video to hundreds of people at once.
- ✕ A voice model, which you can rent by the minute but not make.

What this rests on. Wave.video's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
