Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

1.8

GPA, above 7 of the 51 other spend and bill pay tools we grade

Webexpenses is expense management software that covers receipt capture, claim submission, approval workflows and reimbursement, with mileage tracking, VAT reclaim and its own expense cards. Pricing on its page is in pounds sterling and is charged per active user each month, in three tiers plus a customized enterprise option. It lists regional pricing for Australia and APAC separately.

To get you started, here are 8 things to know about Webexpenses, taken from its own pages and our grades.

>
> Policies and an accounting link to set up.
>
> From our grade for ease of use

1 Best for UK expense claims with VAT and mileage

Corporate cards, SSO and NetSuite start on Scale, direct reimbursement and the API need Pro, and no US dollar price could be confirmed.

2 Paid plans start at about $10.05 a month for each person

As its pricing page puts it: £7.5 per user / month (billing basis not stated).

3 It runs on 3 platforms

Web, iOS and Android.

4 Receipt capture and claims

Employees build claims from a photo of a receipt in the iOS or Android app or on desktop, with OCR capture and duplication checks.

5 Policy and approvals

Soft and hard policy rules flag breaches, and approval flows support up to 6 levels with an audit trail.

6 Expense cards

Physical and virtual Webexpenses cards, with phone wallet support; cashback of 0.5% or 0.75% applies on Scale and Pro.

7 A 1.8 GPA, above 7 of 51

That is against the other spend and bill pay tools we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

8 Keep it

To replace Webexpenses you would be making cards issued through a bank. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

Webexpenses

Graded Nov 12, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	C	Essential is £7.50 per user a month, which is above the category's $7.50 cheapest-quarter line once converted. Scale is £9 and Pro £13.
Free plan and trial	F	No free plan and no trial on the pricing page.
Features	C	Receipt capture and claims, policies and approvals, expense cards, mileage and VAT. The listing shows gaps by plan: cards, SSO and NetSuite start on Scale and direct reimbursement and the API on Pro.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. Policies and an accounting link to set up.
Platforms and integrations	B	Web plus iPhone and Android apps, with five integrations on record.

Grade point average — Weak, out of 4.0 1.8

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who Webexpenses is for

- ✓ Fits if you are a UK company with VAT, mileage and receipts to claim
- ✓ Works for teams that only want to pay for users active in a month

Who it is not for

- ✗ Not for you if you want a free trial, as none is listed
- ✗ Watch out: prices are in pounds and the page doesn't say whether they are monthly or yearly
- ✗ Tight if you need cards or NetSuite, as they start on Scale, and direct reimbursement and the API need Pro
- ✗ Watch out: a US dollar price could not be confirmed, and Australia and the region have separate pricing

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ UK-based finance teams that want mileage, VAT reclaim and cards together
- ✓ Companies that want a per-user price with unlimited claims for active users

Worth knowing

- ⓘ Prices are shown in pounds sterling on the page we read; a US dollar price could not be confirmed.
- ⓘ Users are charged only in months they are active, but the page does not say whether prices are billed monthly or annually.
- ⓘ Corporate cards, SSO and NetSuite integration start on Scale; direct reimbursement and the API start on Pro.
- ⓘ The page links to separate APAC pricing for Australia and the region.

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

7/51

Other spend and bill pay tools it is graded above

Webexpenses's GPA of 1.8 is higher than 7 of the 51 other spend and bill pay tools we grade, and level with 18.

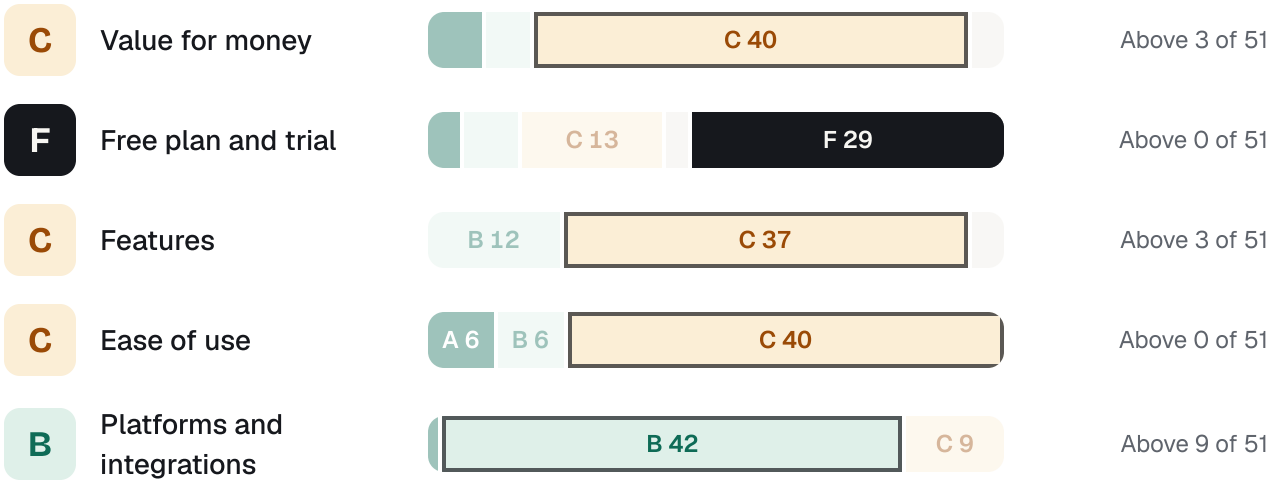

It stands best on platforms and integrations (B, above 9 of 51) and worst on free plan and trial (F, above 0).

Its paid plans start at about $10.05 a month for each person, against a middle price of $12 for the category: 9 of the 24 others that charge start lower.

On features, ease of use and platforms it scores 2.3 out of 4. 6 tools score higher and cost less.

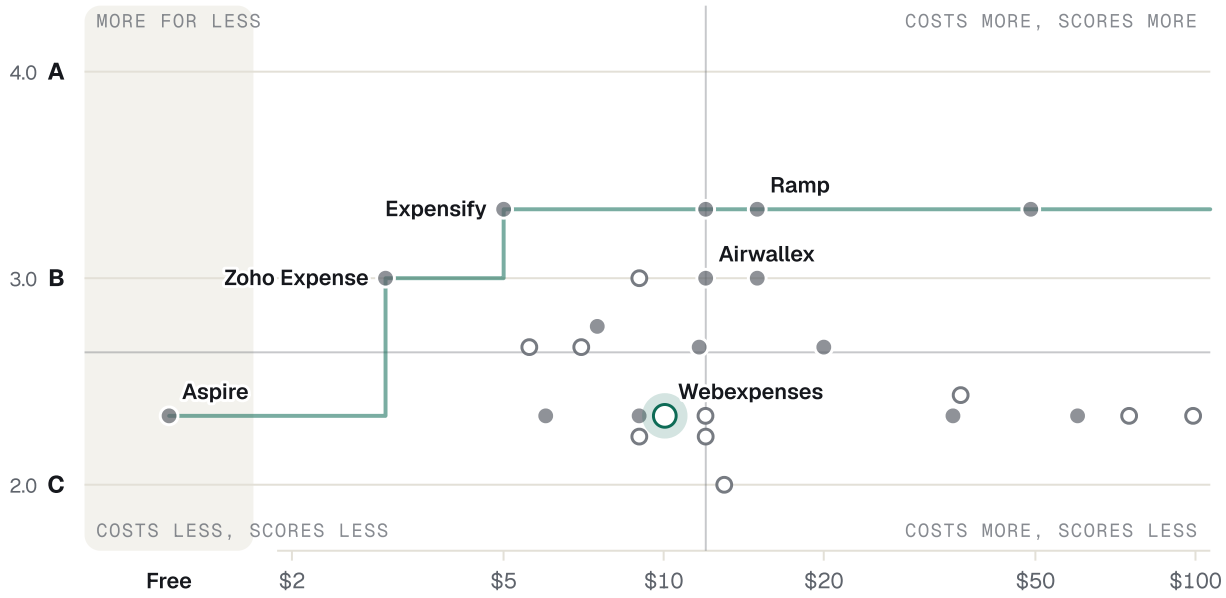

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 52 spend and bill pay tools we grade, cut by the letter each got. Webexpenses's own letter is outlined.

Price against what you get

Each dot is one of 26 spend and bill pay tools. Further left costs less; higher up scores better on features, ease of use and platforms. Webexpenses is the marked dot.

What paid plans start at, a month (each step along is roughly double)

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

To replace Webexpenses you would be making cards issued through a bank. That is not a weekend's work, with an AI app builder or without one.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 26 of the 51 other spend and bill pay tools grade higher. It costs $120.59 a year.

What you could make

- Expense tracking and reports: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- × Cards issued through a bank.

- Connections to other products, each kept working as those products change.
- A real app for iOS and Android. Something home-made would be a web page.
- It is priced for each person, which means accounts and billing for a team.

What this rests on. Webexpenses's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
