Welcome

What it is, who it suits, its grades and the ten things to know first

2.2

GPA, above 23 of the 98 other time tracking apps we grade

WiseTime records desktop activity in the background and sorts it into client matters, so timekeepers do not run a start and stop timer. It drafts time-entry narratives from the recorded work and sends posted time to a connected billing or practice management system. The vendor positions it for law firms and describes it as part of Anaqua.

To get you started, here are 8 things to know about WiseTime, taken from its own pages and our grades.

> You connect your practice management system and review entries before posting.
>
> From our grade for ease of use

1 Best for law firms that want hours captured automatically

WiseTime records what you do on Windows, Mac or Linux and writes a billing description for each matter, aimed at law firms.

2 You can try it first

30-day free trial

3 It runs on 4 platforms

Windows, macOS, Linux and iOS.

4 Automatic time capture

Records activity across desktop apps on Windows, Mac and Linux while the user works, with no timer to start or stop.

5 Matter detection

Matter IDs sync from the connected practice management system, and recorded activity is tagged against the matching matter.

6 AI-written narratives

Summarizes recorded activity into a description for the invoice, with preferences to adjust the style or translate it.

7 A 2.2 GPA, above 23 of 98

That is against the other time tracking apps we grade, on value, the free plan, features, ease of use and platforms.

8 Keep it

The plain part of WiseTime you could make: time tracking and reports. What surrounds it you could not. The 3 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

The report card

Best for law firms that want hours captured automatically

WiseTime records what you do on Windows, Mac or Linux and writes a billing description for each matter, aimed at law firms. There's no published price, the Professional plan needs 5 users, and the phone app is iOS only.

TOOLGPA REPORT CARD — WiseTime — Graded Nov 13, 2026

SUBJECT	GRADE	COMMENT
Value for money	C	No prices published. Pricing is quoted through a demo request, and Professional has a 5-user minimum.
Free plan and trial	C	A 30-day free trial. The listing doesn't say whether it needs a card.
Features	C	Automatic capture, matter tagging and AI-written entries. It's built for legal timekeeping, a smaller job than general time tracking.
Ease of use	C	No store rating on record. You connect your practice management system and review entries before posting.
Platforms and integrations	B	Windows, Mac, Linux and an iOS app, with Clio, Outlook and QuickBooks. API and single sign-on are Enterprise only.

Grade point average — Fair, out of 4.0 2.2

An A is worth 4 points, a B 3, a C 2, a D 1 and an F nothing. The GPA is the average of the five.

Who WiseTime is for

- ✓ Fits if you bill by the matter and use Clio or a similar practice system
- ✓ Works for firms that don't want staff starting and stopping timers

Who it is not for

- ✕ Skip it if you aren't in legal or professional services, as the product is aimed at law firms
- ✕ Pricey if you can't tell: no price is published and Professional starts at 5 users
- ✕ Not for you if you use Android, since the phone app is iOS only
- ✕ Watch out: API access, single sign-on and custom connections are Enterprise, aimed at firms with over 50 users

Good to know

Good for

- ✓ Law firms that want billable time captured without timers
- ✓ Timekeepers who bill through Clio or another connected system
- ✓ Firms of five or more people that want team-level time reports

Worth knowing

- ⓘ No prices are published; pricing is quoted through a demo request.
- ⓘ The Professional plan has a 5-user minimum, keeps data for up to 12 months and uses cloud connections only.
- ⓘ The mobile app is iOS only, and the vendor's focus is legal timekeeping rather than general projects.
- ⓘ API access, single sign-on and bespoke connections are Enterprise features, aimed at firms with over 50 users.

What it costs

> Automatic capture, matter tagging and AI-written entries.
>
> From our grade for features

Automatic time capture

Records activity across desktop apps on Windows, Mac and Linux while the user works, with no timer to start or stop.

Matter detection

Matter IDs sync from the connected practice management system, and recorded activity is tagged against the matching matter.

AI-written narratives

Summarizes recorded activity into a description for the invoice, with preferences to adjust the style or translate it.

Private timeline

Recorded time stays private to the user until they review, edit or delete entries and post them. Rules can leave private tasks out.

Billing system connections

Cloud connections to systems such as Clio send posted time to the right client or case. Other systems need an Enterprise connection.

Team dashboard and reports

Managers see how well their team records time and can export PDF or CSV reports by person, period or tag.

PART 04 · STANDING

Where it stands

Its grades against its category, and whether to keep it or make your own

23/98

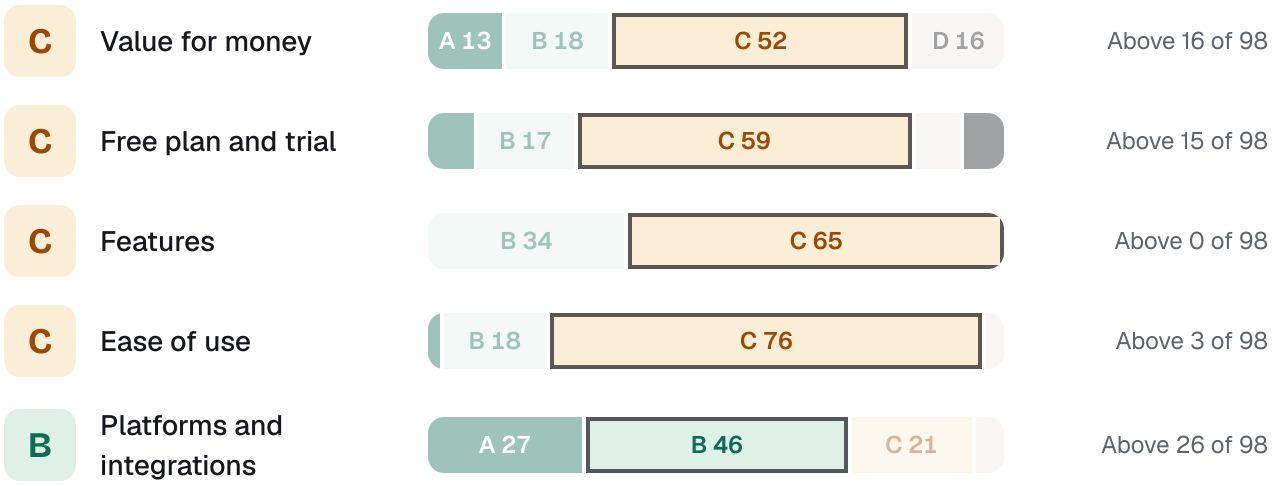

Other time tracking apps it is graded above

WiseTime's GPA of 2.2 is higher than 23 of the 98 other time tracking apps we grade, and level with 17.

It stands best on platforms and integrations (B, above 26 of 98) and worst on features (C, above 0).

Each grade against the category

Every bar is all 99 time tracking apps we grade, cut by the letter each got. WiseTime's own letter is outlined.

Keep it, or make your own?

Whether this is something you could build for yourself with an AI app builder, and what you would give up.

Keep it

The plain part of WiseTime you could make: time tracking and reports. What surrounds it you could not. The 3 things listed below take a company, not a weekend.

That makes this kind of software worth paying for, not this one in particular: 58 of the 98 other time tracking apps grade higher.

What you could make

- Time tracking and reports: an app builder makes these well.

What you could not

- Apps for macOS, Windows, Linux and iOS that stay in step with each other.
- It plugs into other products, Clio, Microsoft Outlook and Mitratech TeamConnect among them.
- AI features, unless you pay a model provider for each request yourself.

What this rests on. WiseTime's listing: what it does, where it runs, what it plugs into and what it costs. It is a judgement about the kind of software this is. We have not built a replacement for it, and making your own means looking after it too. How we decide, and every tool's verdict.
